LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Representative E. D. Shurtleff Writes Very Forcefully of His Candidacy

FLAYS ALBERT J. OLSON

Is Ardent Supporter of Mr. L. E. Mentch, Candidate for Nomination for State Senator from this District

Marengo, July 20, 1908

Mr. Editor:

In an office in Woodstock, backed by Chicago money and turned into a political manufactory of "the peerless candidate for senator," "the farmers' friend for congress," and "the candidate of the common people for state's attorney," a newspaper article was written which first appeared in the Waukegan Gazette, and which has been eagerly copied by the Woodstock Republican, the Harvard Independent and the Hebron Tribune, as follows:

"McHenry county seeks not only the senatorship, but the legislature as well, a step which has broken the old agreement passing the senatorship between the three counties in rotation. Shurtleff's entrance into the race for reelection is the one thing which broke the arrangement and that step alone will lose Mr. Shurtleff many votes in Lake county, because it had been hoped the old agreement would prevail even under the new primary law. The thing for Shurtleff to have done was either to go out after the senatorship or else retire for two years and then again seek the legislature when it came McHenry's turn to send a man to the lower house. According to reports, Shurtleff's stand on the primary law, together with other things, are going to hurt him much this time and it is reported there is danger that he cannot even carry his own county in his race for re-nomination. Accordingly, if he gets the little support expected from Boone and Lake counties, his chances for re-election, look rather dubious."

It sounds strange that the pure friends of the people should endeavor to nullify the primary law and seek to nominate their candidates by the sanctity of a political bargain. It is astonishing that a "peerless leader" and "the choice of the people" should become so worried about the intelligence of the people and their political action that he should seek to divert them by means of a political bargain or custom that had been made by unholy politicians. And who is it that is invoking the aid of a political bargain to elect a state senator from McHenry county? It is Albert J. Olson of Chicago.

Mr. Olson was a delegate to the judicial convention in Cook county in April, 1906. Mr. Olson sat in the Cook county Republican convention as a delegate on August 8, 1906. Mr. Olson was a delegate to the Republican state convention at Springfield from the 6th delegate district of the 22nd Ward of Chicago, on August 14, 1906. Eighty-three days only after sitting in that convention, Mr. Olson cast his first vote in McHenry county, on November 6, 1906, in defiance of the law that requires a ninety day residence in a county before a person is entitled to vote. Mr. Olson was a member of the Illinois House from Chicago in 1895 and in 1897, and voted for the Allen law, granting a fifty year franchise to street railways, the gas consolidation law, and the gas frontage act, which created a gas monopoly in Chicago. Mr. Olson was a member of the city council in Chicago from 1893 to 1902.

Albert J. Olson is in the fight for state senator from this district at the request of Governor Charles S. Deneen, and has joined hands with David H. Jackson, the mayor of Lake Forest, who is the Deneen leader in Lake county and a candidate for the lower House. Mr. Olson is hand and glove with an element in Boone county, ten of whom a few days ago visited Governor Deneen in Chicago and obtained their orders that I must be driven out of politics in this district.

Albert J. Olson, if elected to the state senate, and David H. Jackson, if elected to the House, will furnish two votes at the command of the Chicago machine and combine.

On what theory, or by what argument should Albert J. Olson be sent to the state senate? What has he ever done? What will he do for the Eighth Senatorial District? At Woodstock, in the early part of May, he attempted to buy the state senatorship by getting all opposition out of the way. Through his newspapers, and personally, through the district, he has made the issues that I must be defeated, because, as he says, I am supporting Mr. L. E. Mentch for state senator. Personally I am for Mr. Mentch for state senator. I gave my word to Mr. Mentch to support him because he is a good man, a worthy resident, all of his life of McHenry county, a tried and true Republican and a man who, if elected, would make his voice heard and his vote count in the Illinois state senate. Mr. Mentch is not asking to go to the state senate for the purpose of silver-coating any tarnished record, and I would rather go down with my friend, to defeat than to turn over the representation of the Eighth Senatorial District to the City of Chicago.

If Mr. Olson is the peerless leader that he claims to be, let him confidently trust the people of the Eighth Senatorial District and not prate about political bargains. Lake county, also, has a candidate for Senator and three candidates for representative. Boone county has a candidate for Senator and one for representative.

If my election means the defeat of Mr. Olson, and Mr. Olson's election means my defeat, I shall be more than glad to accept Mr. Olson's challenge. I am not trying to dictate as to whom the people of this district shall choose for state senator. Neither shall A. J. Olson, David H. Jackson, et al, dictate to me whom I shall support. Let the people choose.

Very respectfully,
EDWARD D. SHURTELL

LAY A TRAP FOR SLAYER

Detectives Try to Capture Peter Petkewic on Visit Home Sunday

Detectives of Waukegan Saturday night and Sunday morning laid a trap for the capture of Peter Petkewic, alleged murderer of John Jances, but failed to land him in their net as it is believed that his wife warned him.

The day after the inquest over the remains of Jances, who was killed from a shot from Petkewic's revolver, Petkewic being exonerated of blame by a coroner's jury, as a blind Petkewic took his dinner pail in his working clothes and started off ostensibly to work. It was a blind and he fled.

The same day 200 Lithuanians, furious at the death of Jances and anxious to avenge it, banded together, raised money and voted to pursue and capture the fugitive.

The tip was that he would be home Saturday night or Monday morning and detectives were watching the house prepared to nab him the instant he should make an appearance.

However it is believed that friends got word to him in some way and as a result he did not show up.

The chase continued all day Sunday, an attorney and detectives tracing him to Gary, Indiana, where all trace of him was lost. Lithuanians say he will be followed to the ends of the earth if necessary.

WOODMAN PICNIC DATE DRAWS NEAR

Thursday August 6th, two weeks from today, is the day selected by Lotus Camp No 531, M. W. A. for holding their Picnic in Crowley's and Brook's groves at Cross Lake.

The Committee in charge of the arrangements has left nothing undone which will add to the pleasure and amusement of those who attend and the affair promises to be the best of its kind ever given by a local fraternal order.

The amusement and program committee has been busy for the past two or three weeks and has succeeded in securing a bill of attractions. A basket ball game has been arranged for between the Antioch girls and the Kenosha girls. This should prove a big attraction as it is something entirely new and novel. Two ball games have been arranged for. In the forenoon the Antioch Woodman and in the afternoon the Genoa Junction boys will cross bats with the Antioch boys. This promises to be a good game as both teams are considered strong. A good bill of races will be pulled off in the forenoon. The Antioch Brass Band will furnish music during the entire day.

Hanneman's seven piece orchestra will furnish music for a dance in the Antioch Opera House during evening.

Ice cream, soda water and refreshment stands will be on the grounds as will also doll racks, cane racks, and other means of amusement.

All in all an excellent program has been arranged and all should plan to attend as the Woodman promise a first class time.

An Infrequent Traveler.

Mrs. Sylvia Merriman, who is 72 years old, took her second ride in a railroad coach the other day—her first ride she took 42 years ago. Her journey was to Ansonia, where she came to visit her niece. She had her first street car ride when, with Mrs. Amelia Thompson, aged 67 years; Mrs. Amanda Bishop, aged 66 years; and Mrs. Rosa Andrews, aged 70 years, all of them relatives, she went to Cheshire, the village of her birth.—N. CRAMPS CAUSE DROWNING AT HONEY LAKE

Harry Harris, seventeen years old, whose parents reside at Sturgeon Bay, Wis., was drowned Sunday while swimming in Honey Lake, two miles north of Barrington.

Harris, accompanied by a number of his relatives who own a summer cottage on the lake front, were in swimming just after eating their dinner.

Harris was swimming out into the lake when his friends heard him shout for help. His body sank under the ebbing waters of the lake before help arrived. It was later learned that he had been seized with a cramp in his right thigh. He had been subject to cramps all his life.

His friends dragged the lake bottom for his body, which when recovered, was shipped to Sturgeon Bay. Harris had been visiting with the family of E. P. Campbell of Barrington.

This is the second drowning in Lake county this season. The first case was at Gage's Lake when a Chicago banker drowned while in swimming.

TAKE BIG COLLECTION FOR VOLIVA SUNDAY

Sunday at Zion City Voliva revived the spirit of the times of Dowie by taking up a collection amounting to $2,541 for payment of the Zion City tabernacle which his faction recently purchased. The people are sacrificing their personal belongings, their property and even their daily wage to permit of complete payment for the tabernacle and will have to furnish six such collections as Sunday it is said before the Volivans are out of the woods.

Men Are More Romantic.

Men are said to be more romantic than women, as what woman ever cares to read poetry aloud? And how many poor women have spent hours of martyrdom listening to some man pour forth his soul in some one else's verse. The majority of sweethearts find it easy enough, but to wives it is generally nothing else than a bore, which should not be the case; at least, the wife should not allow the husband to find it out, and should regard her own lack of interest as a fault.

MOCK BATTLE AT PICNIC

Detachments of Artillery, Cavalry and Infantry to be Asked for Waukegan Day

There have been no mock battle between detachments of militia since a year ago when the rise of Camp Logan as a militia center began and the decline of Camp Lincoln at Springfield set in, the Waukegan Day general committee has decided to appeal to heads of the militia for the arrangement of a mock battle in Waukegan on that day.

The scheme is to use both Battery C of that city and whatever troops there are at Camp Logan at the time, August 3d, and it is believed that the head of the state militia can be induced to believe that a mock battle on new grounds will result only in benefit to their charges.

The system is to have Battery C, a detachment of the First Cavalry of Chicago and a detachment of infantry, say from the Second regiment, all detailed there, split up, arranged on opposite sides on the Waukegan Day grounds and started at it in make believe war fare. The grounds are excellent for strategic speculation on the part of the militia officials, abounding in hills, ravines, small streams and groves and the winning side would have brain power behind it to a surprising degree to solve the difficulties. This, it is taken, is what the state is looking for.

Waukegan's part would probably be to provide a camping ground and feed the soldiers while they are there.

SENATOR HOPKINS TO SUPERVISE TARIFF CHANGES

Congress, during the last session, authorized the finance committee of the senate to investigate all matters relating to the tariff with the idea of preparing a bill for introduction at the forthcoming session to amend the various schedules of the tariff law. Under this authorization Mr. Hopkins has been made chairman of the subcommittee to fix the rates and duties on all goods imported into the country and determine the cost of foreign products that come into competition with like products in the United States. It is this subcommittee that will practically have charge of the new tariff law. Thus the junior Illinois Senator will occupy a position of potential influence when tariff legislation is again undertaken. It is a position that is second to none in importance, and its relation to the business interests of the great middle west will be best appreciated by business men. It is a long time since a senator from the Mississippi Valley has been accorded a place of such influence upon the greatest working committee of congress. Usually the subcommittee that is charged with the duty of fixing rates and schedules has, as its chairman, a senator from one of the eastern states where tariff is a religion. The fact that Senator Hopkins has been chosen for the chairmanship would indicate a radical change of policy on the part of those senators who for so many years have controlled the finance committee. It indicates a purpose on their part to yield in some measure at least to the demands of the middle west for changes in schedules that will permit broader reciprocal trade relations for the manufactured products of the middle western states than have heretofore existed.

It is a matter of record that the demand for reciprocity had its origin in Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and other middle western states and most of its advocates come from that section. Eastern manufacturers, particularly those of New England, steadfastly oppose reciprocity, and their influence in Washington was great enough to prevent favorable consideration of any of the numerous treaties that have been considered by the committee on foreign relations, of which Senator Cullom is chairman. Senator Cullom and his committee colleagues have repeatedly reported the treaties to the senate, with favorable recommendations, but they have always been sidetracked by the pro-tariff senators, or where they were pressed to a vote they have been defeated under the rule, which requires a two-thirds majority for the adoption of a treaty. With Senator Hopkins acting as chairman of the subcommittee that will pass upon the revision of schedules, it seems probable that the long fight of the manufacturers of the middle west for legislative recognition will be won. Senator Hopkins has always been in complete accord with their desires, but never heretofore has he been in a position to master so favorable an influence in aiding them to achieve their desires.

COVEY IS OUT FOR SENATOR

Local Attorney and Member of the Legislature Enters Race for Nomination

HE HAS A CLEAN RECORD

Gives his Views on Some of the Legislation Needs and Will Make an Able Senator from this District

Hon. Frank R. Covey has formally entered the field for the Republican nomination for state senator from the district consisting of Boone, McHenry and Lake counties.

Mr. Covey has represented this district in the house for two terms and has been urged by many friends to enter the field for the upper house and has finally consented to do so. In making announcement of his candidacy Mr. Covey submits the following statement:

While little attention is paid to legislative offices by many of the voters, they are very important; the Legislature has to do with the appropriation of millions of dollars, for the maintenance of the penal, reformatory and charitable institutions; laws are enacted which affect the every day life and affairs of the people more than by the National Congress. An employee of a business house or manufacturing institution if loyal to his employer because more and more valuable each year; it is the same with a legislator, if he is honest and seeks to serve his constituents, each year's experience renders him more valuable and efficient.

According to the custom adopted in this district for many years, McHenry county would this year be entitled to the State Senator, and Lake and Boone counties, each a member of the lower house. Inasmuch as McHenry county has not seen fit to abide by the old agreement, but already has two candidates for the senate and one for the house, and Lake county has two candidates for the house and one for the senate, it is only proper that Boone county should have candidates for both house and senate also.

When I was first elected to the legislature I was, and still am, president of the North Belvidere board of education and naturally was interested in educational legislation. At my request I was appointed on the educational committee and have served on this committee both sessions. Every school director, trustee or township treasurer or any person who has occasion to consult our school laws has probably been confused by their conglomerated condition—there are many conflicting sections and it is difficult for an attorney to say nothing of a layman, to ascertain what the law is. Our committee took this matter up and made provision for having the whole school law revised and re-written and after the next session we hope to have the school law in more intelligible form.

There is a crying need in many of the municipalities of our state for a law to regulate the price of gas and electricity used for light, heat and power, also for the inspection of gas and electric meters that the consumer may know what he is paying for. I succeeded in getting a bill through the house giving city councils the right to establish, own, control and operate gas and electric light plants and to furnish gas and electricity for public and private use; also to regulate the sale of gas and electricity, to fix the price and standard of quality thereof and to provide for the inspection of the same. This bill after passing the house was referred to a senate committee and there killed, never being reported out. I believe, however, after giving the matter more study, that the most satisfactory method of correcting the abuses connected with the supplying of gas and electricity is through the medium of a public service commission, such as recently provided for in the state of New York through the efforts of Governor Hughes. Powerful influences are against any regulation of these matters and the people are not apt to get any relief until they rise in their might and demand through their representatives legislation for the correction of these abuses.

I believe that a saving to the tax payers of the state could be made by doing away with township tax collectors and having the taxes paid to the county treasurers; and that the taxes should be paid in semi-annual installments; the money is not needed all at once by the state, and the tax payers might just as well have the use of it as to have it lying in the vaults of the state treasury. Recently a commission was appointed by the governor to consider the whole revenue system and how it may be

OLSON FAR IN THE LEAD LOOKS A SURE WINNER

From All Appearances Will Get A Large Vote in All Parts of Lake County

The nearer we approach to the primaries the more evident it is that Hon. A. J. Olson of Woodstock will receive the nomination for State Senator.

This is apparent from the fact that Mr. Olson will carry his home county by a large majority and will also receive a big vote in Lake county.

Mr. Olson is a hustler and has visited every city, village, milk station and hamlet, called on individuals everywhere, and has been received with favor wherever he has been, and the encouragement he has received is a sure indication of his popularity. They admire his hustling methods and his straightforward manner and have promised him their support. With the fight in the district at white heat, no one can expect to win without an effort, and this is not being done by either of his opponents.

Mr. Olson has many friends in the township of Antioch, and in fact, through all parts of Lake county who are earnestly working for his success, and many of his Lake county supporters are confident that this county will give Mr. Olson the largest vote for Senator of any candidate in the field.

The farmers of the entire district owe it to themselves to attend the primaries on Saturday, August 8th, and help the candidacy of Mr. Olson for Senator. His interests are their interests.

From the best reports that can be obtained throughout the entire district, we predict the nomination of Mr. Olson for State Senator by a large majority.

ALBERT J. OLSON

A. B. Johnson,

Editor News, Antioch, Ill.

Woodstock, Ill., July 20, 1908.

My Dear Sir:—Some one opposed to my candidacy for State Senator has seen fit to distribute throughout this Senatorial District what purports to be a copy of a Cook County Republican delegate ballot, bearing date of August 4, 1906, on which my name appears as a Republican delegate to the State and County Convention of that year.

As the same were mailed through the postoffice at Cary, Illinois, I assume they were mailed by Mr. Mentch, who is also a candidate for State Senator.

While no claim is made that I have not been an actual resident of McHenry county for over five years, the inference is that I was a resident of Cook county on August 4, 1906, else my name would not have appeared as a Republican delegate.

In answer permit me to say, that if my name appeared on any Republican ticket in Cook county in the year 1906, as a delegate or in any other way, it was without my knowledge.

In the year of 1904 I was elected as a delegate to the Republican State Convention from Cook county, and that is the last time that I have any knowledge of my name being used on any ticket in Cook county.

I did not at that time ask or seek to be a delegate and no question was then raised as to whether I had a right to be a delegate or not. I did not know that my Republican friends had my name on as a delegate until shortly before the primaries were held.

As to my residence in McHenry county will say, I have made Woodstock my home for over eight months of each year from 1893 to the spring of 1903. Since the spring of 1903 I have been an actual resident of the city of Woodstock, where I have been engaged in business for nearly twenty years.

The Constitution of this state has seen fit to provide that a two years' residence in the district at the time of the election is sufficient. My residence in this district has practically been for the last fifteen years, but my bonified residence in Woodstock, McHenry county, has been since the spring of 1903.

I ask that you publish this letter in the interest of fair play.

Very truly yours,

A. J. OLSON.

SYNOPSIS.

The crowning desire in the life of old Baumgartner, a Pennsylvania German, is to obtain possession of the beautiful meadow which lies just between Baumgartner's property and the railroad station. The property in question was inherited by Sarah Pressel, very pretty and athletic young girl, and belonged solely to her. But old Baumgartner had longed for it so many years and endeavored to purchase it from Sarah's father so many times that the property became known as "Baumgartner's yearn." At the village gatherings on the porch of the store old Baumgartner always declared that the property would some day be his. At length Baumgartner came to realize that his only hope of obtaining the property would be through the marriage of his son Sepheniah to Sarah Pressel. In a mock auction "Seffy," as Sepheniah P. Baumgartner, Jr., is popularly known, is raffled off by his father to Sarah for $1. "Seffy" is a meek, slow-going youth, who is never first in the race for anything. He is fair haired, docile, always led by his father. Of a rather angelic disposition is he—a gentle and kind youth who seems not to understand anything about strife and competition. Thus he appears utterly incapacitated to win in any contest of love or life. Sarah Pressel is quite the opposite of Seffy. Her hair is nearly red. She is all life and animation and can jump fences like a wild colt and she is green and color itself. Her one fault is a very high temper. Baumgartner gives Seffy some lessons in courtship.

CHAPTER II.—Continued.

At last it was evident that Seffy fully understood, and his father broke into that discordant whistle once more.

"A gal that ken jump a six-rail fence—and wissout no running start—don't let her git apast you!"

"Well, I'm going to set up with her to-night," said Seffy again, with a huge yawn. And the tune his father whistled as he opened the door for him sounded something like "I want to be an angel."

"But not to buy no pasture-land!" warned Seffy.

"Oach, no, of course not!" agreed his wily old father. "That's chust one of my durn jokes. But I expect I'll take the fence down to-morrow! Say, Seffy, you chust marry the gal. I'll take keer the fence!"

III.

But Sally Was the Angel.

It took Seffy a long time to array himself as he had threatened. And when it was all done you wouldn't have known him—you wouldn't have cared to know him. For his fine yellow hair was changed to an ugly brown by the patent hair-oil with which he had dressed it—and you would not have liked its fragrance, I trust. Bergamot, I think it was. His fine young throat was garrotted with a starched standing collar, his feet were pinched in creaking boots, his hands close-gauntleted in buckskin gloves, and he altogether incomparable, uncomfortable, and triumphant.

Down stairs his father paced the floor, watch in hand. From time to time he would call out the hour, like a watchman on a minaret. At last:

"Look a-yere, Seffy, it's about two inches apast seven—and by the time you git there—say, nefer git another feller a chance to git there afore you or to leave after you!"

Seffy descended at that moment with his hat poised in his left hand. His father dropped his watch and picked it up.

Both stood at gaze for a moment.

"Sunder, Se! You as beautiful as the sun, moon and stars—and as stinky as seferal apothecary shops. Yere, take the watch and git along—so's you haf some time wiss you was born! Yae, your mammy was disap'nted in you right at first. You was 76 hours late! But now you reformed—sank God! I always knowed it was a cure for it, but I didn't know it was anysing as nice as Sally."

Seffy issued forth to his first conquest—lighted as far as the front gate by the fat lamp held in his father's hand.

"A—Seff—Seffy, shall I set up for you tell you git home?" he called into the dark.

"No!" shouted Seffy. "Aha—aha—aha! That sounds right! Don't you forgit when you bese—well—comfortable—aha—ha-ha! Mebby on one cheer aha—ha-ha. And we'll bese take the fence down to-morrow. Mebby all three!"

IV.

Suppose She Had Greased Her Hair?

Seffy sauntered confidently up The Hill of Delight upon which Sally's house stood. When within sight of it he polished his hat on his sleeve, set the butterfly necktie straight, felt that the apocryphal diamond was safe, and marched up to the house—only to arrive a little later than a buggy from which Sam Pritz, he was certain, had extracted Sally. If it had not been for thought of his father, which opportunity came, Seffy would have gone straight home—so did his heart fall him.

And then instantly there was another and better reason for staying. Sally had seen him. As he hovered—which she seemed to know—she came hurrying down upon him. It was too late then, even if he had had the courage to retreat from such dear danger. She put her arm within his, and, leaning bewitchingly upon it, led him into the house, chattering fervidly—the most willing of captives to the most beguiling of captors. For Sally had put on all her witcheries for this night of nights.

Once within she added the charm of the accomplished amateur hostess—doing fascinating things which needed no doing—hovering about Seffy like the very spirit of a home—so that he had the intoxicating sense of difficulty in keeping from being entangled in her fluttering arms and garments. For his feet, unused to Elysium, would catch themselves in her whirling skirts—as if they knew better than he their ultimate destiny. All this was a splendid revelation to Seffy. He had never, in all his dreams of her (and they were legion!) fancied this soft and winning domesticity. It went to his head like alcohol—opium—ether—making it so light and happy as to be quite useless to him.

So, when Sally finally took the tall hat and went to deposit it in the dark parlor, Seffy followed her, for no better reason than the things in the basin have for following the magnet. And, understanding this, Sally looked over her shoulder at him. And then, snuffing her conquest at a distance, she laughed and mercifully stopped for him to catch up, that she might presently surrender. She got his hand—to lead him. Only that!

"You care a lot for your hat, don't you, Seff—Seffy? And you want to—see"—he couldn't see a thing—"that I—that I—put it at a safe—place?"

Still by the hand further into the darkness!

And Seffy honestly tried to prevaricate for her a "Yes." But he wasn't thinking of the treasured hat at all, only the hand—that it was deliciously warm and soft and electrical. Suddenly she stopped very close to him. Only he was so dull! He did not know! Heavens! when a girl waits for a youth to come close to her in the dark—what else can she mean? But Seffy actually did not know.

"Sam's over there! I—I—wish—he—wasn't!"

To whisper it she had to put one hand on his shoulder. How else could she whisper it? And she laughed a low bubbling laugh—half-confession—half-defiance—all invitation!

Seffy stooped to whisper back to her. Sally waited.

"I know!"

Only that!—Sally was disappointed. For it was the custom in that day and vicinage and in such circumstances to kiss a girl without fail. And could a girl do more than this by way of invitation? You must have perceived that Sally was learned in these matters. And you may be sure she did not forget Seffy's bashfulness and his inexperience. But surely any one would understand that much—in the dark! It argues heavily for the depth of Sally's affection for Seffy that she kept her temper, for the losing of which she was almost as famous as her father had been for losing his, and only sighed desperately. Any other girl would have left hope—and Seffy—behind. At that moment, happily, Sam was heard to move. She put her hand on Seffy's mouth as if some danger were there. And Seffy, by a sort of instinct, it must have been, kissed it!

"Oh!"

Both of Sally's hands went up in real surprise—and Seffy caught and kissed them both!

"Oh!—oh!—oh!"

She had to stuff her gay little handkerchief into her mouth to keep the joy within. After all, could this Seffy be playing possum? Was he deep? I don't know, any more than Sally, how it all happened—except that perhaps Seffy discovered himself suddenly brave in the darkness, and Sally quite defenseless—but presently her head was on his shoulder, and his arm was around her, in quite the way his father had suggested and Sally had expected. And neither of them thought of him or a word he had said—concerning lands, tenements and hereditaments. Sally's hand crept up insidiously about Seffy's neck. But then it was fearfully withdrawn.

"Please don't grease your hair hereafter," said Sally. But she kissed it!

"Hereafter! Hereafter!" Seffy's heart pounded.

"Suppose I'd grease my hair!" said Sally speciously.

The horror conjured up was factitious. Remember where her head was resting. But an alien element was now raised between them. Seffy moved away. Mads should not cavil even at oiled hair—so early in their courtship! More fascination was needed—perhaps only a soft cooling word.

"You—you wouldn't like that—would you?"—still meekly.

"No!" Seffy answered, puzzled. "My Sunday coat would get greased!"

"My sleeve did!"

She inspected a soiled sleeve—in the ray from the hall—which had no spot on it!

"I don't care for the sleeve. I'll wash out. But Sam—he sees every—"

She laughed and was about to plunge recklessly back into his arms. But her hair was beautiful! And she had made it more so for him. He must see it! She plunged further into the ray from the hall lamp instead and flung it forward about her face. It clung and clustered there like an aureole. Seffy, in his brief life, he thought, had seen nothing more divine. She looked saucily up at him out of the tops of her eyes. His adoration made her very happy.

"There! ain't that nicer than yours?" She buried her fingers in the splendid mass, and pushed it into further disorder until it lay close—shining about her face.

"Oh, Sally," said Seffy, approaching her as if she were some goddess, "wear it that way always!"

The alien thing was gone! They were in rapport once more!

"They'd have me in an asylum in no time. But—"

Somehow, Seffy's arms opened to invite her back and she came with a low reckless laugh. The wild sheaf of her hair lodged again close under his chin. He recklessly thrust his face into it. Its perfume in his nostrils and its movement against his skin were ineffable. He kissed it. Again it was the strange fashion of the cavalier—in those kisses! Where did he learn it?

"Oh, Sally, wear it always so!" he begged again. And—good heavens!—he put his lips down upon it once more!

"Just when you come to see me," murmured Sally to the lapel of his coat.

"Sally—Sally, you are an angel!" said Seffy.

And this one little word which came to dull Seffy so happily out of his favorite song made the coquette very serious.

"Not an angel, Seffy, Seff—Seffy," she said with her head a little down. "I don't think you would like me to be such. I'm not! Angels never laugh, you know—nor love. And I want to do a lot of both. But—but—Seffy, I'd like to be something very nice—to you. What is the nicest thing a girl can be to you?"

"A sister!" ventured Seffy, who had never had one.

Sally shivered, then laughed. But she took herself away from Seffy.

The Pressel temper flamed a moment, and certain words began to form in her mind like "Fool!" and "Go!" and "Damn!" For, I think I haven't told you that Sally sometimes swore—in extreme circumstances. Her father had done so.

She spoke with that trifle of hard brutality which came out now and then.

"You know what they say at the store—that I flirt and am not nice in other ways, and they're right. But I do want to be nice to you, though not a sister—quite. Ugh! And, you know, one thing they say is true—my temper. Look out for that! You must always take time to forgive me and let me ask to be forgiven."

Now, I beg to ask you whether an amende was ever more delicious—considering that much of what she said to and for Seffy was meant to and for herself alone? Indeed, before she got through with it, it had affected her quite as if Seffy had pleaded it, and her voice sank to its pretty mezzo, then quivered a bit, and she understood that was answering herself:

"Seffy, I am awfully sorry!"

"For what, Sally?" asked Seffy.

Seffy, dull Seffy, really did not know for what. But there is something which God gives the dull, as well as the sprightly witted, that outleaps words to comfort sorrow. And this Seffy had abundantly. It first expressed itself in the strong young arms which again closed in utter silence upon the sorrowing one.

Presently (perhaps you have not forgotten how it is?) in the same silence, Seffy's lips found hers—not as the victor pounces upon the spoil of his conquest—but slowly, uncertainly, unconsciously—as if the lips were a saint's relics; and Sally waited, not as she had waited before, but in the knowledge that her hour had come, and that this kiss—the first this youth had given to woman since his mother's died in his infancy—must not be received as others had been, but as sacredly as it came; and when it finally fell the lips of the coquette quivered as they received it, and then suddenly sobbed, and did not know why—

Wild Boar a Hard Fighter.

For sheer deviltry and insane ferocity the boar stands pre-eminent and for courage he has no equal among animals. A wild boar charging has been known to bring an elephant down on its knees, and one well authenticated fight is recorded between a boar and a full grown tiger in which the boar more than held its own. Tigers have the greatest respect for wild boars and treat them accordingly. In matter of speed the horse has not yet been foaled which can catch a boar in its first burst. I have seen a man on a thoroughbred Arab try to cut out a boar in breaking back to cover, and the boar literally walked around him.—Recreation.

News Notes of Interest Gathered in Cities, Towns and Villages of the State.

WAVERLY SWEEP BY FIRE.

Bradley Block Is Partially Destroyed, Together with Stocks.

Waverly.—Fire, originating from an unknown cause in the storeroom on the second floor of the Dan Hart grocery, did damage of several thousand dollars to the structures and stocks in the Bradley block. Following is a list of those who suffered from the flames: Hart grocery, damage $1,600; insurance, $1,200; Frank Wyle, jeweler in Baker building, damage to stock and building, $500; insurance to cover; Bradley & Lewis, millinery parlor, in Baker building, damage, $600; Bradford & Welsch, dry goods and notions, in the Bradford building, stock damaged by water to extent of $500. The fire was discovered by Night Watchman Charles Adwell, who hurried to sound the alarm. Citizens turned out en masse and within a short time streams of water furnished by means of a hand engine were playing on the flames, which had spread to adjoining buildings before discovered. Every one joined in the work of rescue and much valuable merchandise was carried from the buildings lying in the path of the flames.

INDICT CANDIDATE AS BRIBER.

Jurors Take Action Against Springfield Deputy Coroner.

Springfield.—The special grand jury returned an indictment against Deputy Coroner Frank E. Early charging him with attempting to bribe Assistant State's Attorney Wines. Early is alleged to have offered the prosecuting attorney $100 to allow the case against Ira Dudley, charged with murder, to go over to the next regular session of the grand jury. Wines is a candidate for state's attorney and Early is a candidate for the nomination of probate judge. In a statement given Early says that the charge made by Wines is groundless. He says he did not offer money, but simply suggested that the case be investigated at the session of the grand jury to be held in October.

Cody and Carson Followed Dies.

Bloomington.—Lindsey C. Powell, who when 21 years old crossed the plains with "Buffalo Bill" and Kit Carson, is dead at his home in this city, aged 72 years. For a year he was with Cody's cowboy Indian fighters and was also stationed at the Kit Carson agency in New Mexico in government service. He had been a resident of Bloomington for two years.

Disregards Sign; Is Drowned.

Galesburg.—Disregarding the sign, "No Swimming," Loren Vittum, aged 13 years, the son of E. S. Vittum, a wealthy retired farmer of Knoxville, entered a pond on the farm of Mr. Eckdall, south of that village, and was drowned. The body was recovered after having been in the water two hours.

Churchman Is Accused.

Peoria.—Papers in what promises to be the most sensational case the Peoria courts have known for years, were filed when Adah Wilson of Chicago brought suit for trespass against Charles E. Chandler, president and treasurer of the Anti-Urce company of Peoria, naming damages of $25,000.

Asks $9,000 Lost in Gambling.

Jacksonville.—Mrs. Nellie M. Seerry filed suit in the circuit court against Charles Thompson, James Rabbit, Thomas E. Lane, Andrew Weakley and Robert H. Clement to recover $9,000 lost by her husband, Dr. John W. Seerry, to those persons in gambling.

Would Bathe Dog; Drowns.

Moline.—Eagerness on the part of Clarence Wemmer, aged ten years, to give his pet dog "Fido" a bath in the Mississippi, cost the boy his life. Seated in a boat he boy tried to push the animal into the river. The dog resisted and the lad was thrown overboard.

Lightning Strikes Barn; It Burns.

White Hall.—During a storm lightning struck the barn of Anthony Seely, four miles west of the city, and it was burned to the ground, together with 100 tons of hay, 200 bushels of corn, two sets of harness and some farming implements. The total loss is $3,000.

Child Is Hanged on Fence.

Charleston.—The 14-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emson Hunt of Fuller's Point was killed while attempting to climb a rail fence. He fell, his head caught between the rails, and the weight of his body broke his neck; death resulting almost instantly.

$20,000 Structure for Beardstown.

Beardstown.—Plans for a modern hotel and mercantile building to be erected by F. W. Meyer have been made by Bullard & Bullard of Springfield. The structure will be 100x90 feet. It probably will cost $20,000.

Jacksonville Lad Dies of Tetanus.

Jacksonville.—John, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Vierla, died from tetanus caused from the accidental running of a splinter into one of his feet. The youth was operated on in an attempt to save his life.

TRAGEDY IS SUSPECTED.

Strands of Hair and Pieces of Woman's Dress Taken from Water.

Havana.—Are the strands of golden hair and pieces of a woman's dress fished from the bottom of the Illinois river by W. S. Sutton, a clamisher, evidences of a tragedy or an accident? Sutton said the bar bearing the hooks seemed uncommonly heavy with clams but as he pulled it in it became lighter. He believed the grappling hooks lifted a body from its resting place in the bottom of the river and when it worked loose it floated off. Search for a "floater" was maintained along the river.

LIFT LID AT LINCOLN.

Order of Mayor for Sunday Closing Recalled with Much Mystery.

Lincoln.—The lid Mayor Maltby clamped down on the saloons of this city a few Sundays ago and of which it was said was a perfect fit, would last forever, etc., has been recalled. Whether the lid was found to be a miserable fit, the mayor relented his stern action, or he took compassion on suffering humanity—for Sunday was some hot—no one knew. However, the rear doors of all dramshops were all open and business ran in the same old way.

Miners Indorse Candidates.

Virde.—The legislative committee appointed by the Chicago & Alton sub-district, Mine Workers of America, composed of P. F. Delchanty of Virde, Walter Shepard of Girard and Dan Brown of Carlinville, have indorsed the following candidates: F. W. Burton for senator, Louis P. Daley for representative, W. H. Behrens for representative, and John McCarron of Farmersville.

Saloons Out; Police Follow.

Fairfield.—Golden Gate, the third largest town in Wayne county, has found that it does not need a police force since saloons have been closed. On April 7 Golden Gate voted out saloons. Since then the office of marshal has been abolished as being a useless expenditure, and the town is now entirely without police protection.

Three Hurt in Family Feud.

Peoria.—As a result of a savage fight growing out of a family feud at Peoria Heights, George Hoffman, a plasterer, is suffering from knife wounds, Christ Bayer, living near by and employed at the Peoria Stone and Marble works, is in bed from wounds and bruises, and Carl Kapler is also more or less out of commission.

Shot After Church Festival.

Carmi.—Charles Taborn was shot by Elias Edwards. The two men had been attending a church festival and became principals in a quarrel. After they left the church Taborn, it is said, attempted to whip Edwards, and the latter shot him, one ball putting out his right eye and the other lodging in his jaw.

Dunkard Deacon Elope.

Sterling.—The business and church circles of this city were startled for a second time when it was learned that Henry M. Cooley, a Dunkard deacon, had secured a divorce and had married again. The marriage was clandestine, and took place six months after he had left his wife of 27.

Bathing Garment Drowns Youth.

Fairfield.—Harold Knott, a book-keeper for the Golden Gate Slave company, was drowned in the Little Wabash river at that place. He used a suit of ordinary underwear for a bathing suit and a button broke, letting the lower garment down about his ankles.

Turn Down Pana Franchise.

Pana.—The franchise offered the Hillsboro, Mattoon & Charleston Railway company was refused by officials of the company. The franchise is not satisfactory to the company because it does not permit the entrance of the line to the city by the route decided on.

Buried a Week; Flight Over Estate.

Taylorville.—Although Mrs. Nancy Card-Wauchatski-Rhodes was in her grave less than a week her relations started litigation over the property with which she died. Mrs. Rhodes left two houses on one lot on West Franklin street and about $300 in money.

"Baby" Bliss Goes to Asylum.

Bloomington.—Leonard "Baby" Bliss, well-known for his giant physique was adjudged insane and taken to Jacksonville asylum.

Nabbed for Riffing Mails.

Bloomington.—W. H. Hartson, for ten years a letter carrier, was arrested for riffing the mails. He was caught by means of marked money. The money was found on his person when he was arrested.

Talks Heat; Dies of It.

Bloomington.—While making a remark to a physician, who had come to his home to attend his grandson, about the excessive heat of the day John Wesley Doner dropped back in his chair, dead.

AN HONEST DOCTOR ADVISED PE-RU-NA.

M. R. SYLVESTER E. SMITH, Room 218, Granite Block, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "Peruna is the best friend a sick man can have."

"A few months ago I came here in a wretched condition. Exposure and dampness had ruined my once robust health. I had catarrhal affections of the bronchial tubes, and for a time there was a doubt as to my recovery."

"My good honest old doctor advised me to take Peruna, which I did and in a short time my health began to improve very rapidly; the bronchial trouble gradually disappeared, and in three months my health was fully restored."

"Accept a grateful man's thanks for his restoration to perfect health."

Pe-ru-na for His Patients.

A. W. Perrin, M. D., 880 Halsey St., Brooklyn, N. Y., says:

"I am using your Peruna myself, and am recommending it to my patients in all cases of catarrh, and find it to be more than you represent. Peruna can be had now of all druggists in this section. At the time I began using it, it was unknown."

ONE ON THE DOCTOR.

St. Peter's Query Decided Reflection on Medical Attendant.

Dr. Arthur T. Holbrook told a story on his profession.

"A man by the name of Evans died," he said, "and went to heaven, of course. When he arrived at the pearly gates he said to St. Peter:

"Well, I'm here."

"St. Peter looked at him and asked his name. 'John Evans,' was the reply. 'St. Peter looked through his book, and shook his head.

"You don't belong here," he said, pointing to the exit.

"But I am sure I belong here," said the man.

"Wait a minute," said St. Peter. "He looked again and in the back of the book found his name.

"Sure," said the guardian of the gate, "you belong here. But you wasn't expected for 20 years. Who's your doctor?"—Milwaukee Free Press.

SICK HEADACHE

CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE OF THE EIGHTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Republicans of the 8th Senatorial District:

In announcing myself a Candidate for Re-nomination to the Lower House of Representatives I desire to submit to you some of the Measures enacted into legislation with which I have been connected and some of the issues that are before the People of the State of Illinois at the present time and this Senatorial District.

A primary law has been enacted which does away with delegates and conventions and places the power of nominations in the hands of the individual voter, and while I still believe it will be subversive of party rule and not result in the nomination of any better men, than the convention, still under the present circumstances I welcome the opportunity to present to the Republican voters of this Senatorial District my candidacy and if I am not able to shake the hand of every voter in the District and beg for your vote and place my picture upon every fence post in the three counties, I shall hope to have convinced you in a more calm and dispassionate way. I have no claim upon the office of Representative, but I have as much claim as any other man and no other man has any claim upon my claims. It is the privilege of any man to run for office in this free country and I said to the Republicans of this District eight years ago, that I was a candidate because I wanted to go to the Legislature. The Lower House at Springfield is the fighting ground in the State of Illinois where principles of government are settled for this state and I wish to be perfectly frank with you and say that I want to go again.

THE DAIRY QUESTION.

In 1900 when I was first elected to the House, Northern Illinois was greatly disturbed over a Proclamation which had been issued by the then Governor of the State, John R. Tanner, quarantining all dairy cows that were shipped into the State of Illinois, and a system of testing the dairy herds of Illinois was begun, under the then Board of Live Stock Commissioners which brought out many mass meetings, shot gun brigades and many of the finest herds of dairy cows in Northern Illinois were tested, condemned and slaughtered and their owners received little or no compensation for the same.

This was instigated, fanned and encouraged by the newspapers in Chicago which then and as they are doing now, frantically charge the dairy interests with murder, every time a baby from disease, suffocation or any accident, dies in the city of Chicago; and it was further fanned and encouraged by a hungry horde of salary grabbers who were anxious to hold a public position, feed at the public crib and live off the sweat of other men's brows.

I mention this, not so much to go back to the period of 1901 and its unfortunate history, but to call to the attention of the dairymen of Northern Illinois, that after the period of repose, the inspectors are again abroad black-milling the farmers, pretending to powers that he does not have and which he was only prevented from having by one of the fiercest fights that was ever waged at Springfield.

In 1901 before the beginning of the session of the legislature I made two trips to Springfield and secured the assistance of Governor Yates and during the session of that winter an appropriation bill was put through the legislature and signed by the Governor, reimbursing the owners of dairy cattle whose herds had been condemned and slaughtered and they were paid the full appraised value of all such cattle which had been condemned because they did not respond to the tuberculin test, but they were cattle which appeared perfectly sound and the best herds. This did not consist so much in the amount of money secured for the farmers, but it in effect put a stop to the further assaults upon the dairy interests, by the destruction of their herds. For seven years the comparatively few herds tested sufficed to cure the whole cattle kind but we are again in the current period and the inspector is abroad again and it is right that the people should know with what authority. A short time ago, the following article appeared in one of the Chicago daily papers:

By order of Health Commissioner Evans, the Borden Condensed Milk company will not be allowed to sell milk in Chicago from its plant at Marengo, Ill., until three condemned cattle in the herds from which the supply comes are killed.

A few days ago Inspector Zera Bialdel condemned a bull and a cow in the herd owned by Metcalf & Woodward and a cow in the herd of George Wolf, Marengo farmers who sell milk to the Borden company. He declared the animals infected and ordered them killed and their carcasses destroyed. The owners of the herds later sent to the department affidavits that the animals had been destroyed, but Inspector Bialdel discovered yesterday that the animals still were alive and not separated from the healthy cattle. The farmers told the inspector the manager of the Marengo branch of the Borden company had advised them to ignore the department's order.

Commissioner Evans is Doctor Evans, President of the Board of Health of the City of Chicago, and acting under the Ordinances of the City of Chicago, with No. Authority Outside of the Limits of the City of Chicago of Any Kind whatever. It is possible for the Board of Health of the City of Chicago to condemn milk after it gets to Chicago, but the Board of Health of Chicago—its Inspectors, Retainers and Salary-Grabbers—Have No More Authority Upon Your Farm or Mine—than the burglar that seeks to break into our house at night.

Under the State Law there is provided A State Board of Live Stock Commissioners, that DO HAVE AUTHORITY.

"To cause to be investigated any and all cases or alleged cases coming to their knowledge of contagious and infectious diseases among Domestic Animals and to use all proper means to prevent the spread of such diseases, and to provide for the extirpation thereof;" (The right to quarantine, etc.)

But there is no authority on the part of any Inspector or Agent—either from the Board of Health of Chicago or the State Pure Food Commission to go upon a Man's Farm and pretend to inform HIM what cattle he shall or shall not own—what buildings he may or may not build—or in any manner to control the Sanitary Conditions about farms; and I will explain why:

A Bill was brought to Springfield in the Session of a year ago—drawn by the State Pure Food Commission and backed by the full power of the State Administration and introduced as House Bill No. 163 and Entitled: "An act to prevent fraud in the Sale of Dairy Products, their imitation or substitution, to prohibit and prevent the manufacture or Sale of un-healthful, adulterated or mis-branded

FOOD, Liquors or Dairy Products, to provide for the appointment of a

State Food Commissioner and his

Assistants and to REPEAL ALL ACTS relating to the production, manufacture and sale of Dairy and Food Products, etc."

This act as proposed, without doubt, would have repealed the oleomargarine or butterine law.

This bill provided for the appointment of a State Pure Food Commissioner and Assistants; one Chief Chemist and 7 Assistant Chemists, and twenty-five Inspectors and appropriated the sum of $125,000.00 for the execution of the Dairy and Food Laws of the state.

The bill provided that:

"The Commissioner, Assistant Commissioners, and Such Inspectors, Agents,

Chemists and Counsel shall be

Duly Authorized for the Purpose, and

Shall Have Access, Ingress, and Egress

to and from All Places of Business, Factories, Farms, Buildings, Carriages, and Cars used in the Manufacture, transportation, or sale of any article of Food as Defined in the Act."

The first section provides that said

Officers are, "Charged with the enforcement of all Laws regarding the Production, Manufacture and Sale of

All Foods, Etc."

The Bill made it a Penal Offense, for any person to produce or have in his possession, or Offer or Expose for sale or to DELIVER TO ANY PERSON,

FIRM, CORPORATION, CREAMERY,

OR CHEESE FACTORY ANY UN-

WHOLESOME OR Adulterated Milk

or Cream.

It provided that All premises, cans, bottles and utensils employed in the Production, Transportation, Sale or

Delivery of Milk Should be kept in a Clean and SANITARY condition.

It provided how and in what manner milk cows should be kept—what they should be fed and what not fed—that no milk from a cow should be sold for fifteen days after parturition, that no calves should be sold under four weeks of age and all of the condition Sanitary and otherwise under which milk, cream and Dairy Products Should or Could be PRODUCED or SOLD were hedged about by this law and an Army of Twenty-five Inspectors with an Appropriation of $125,000.00 provided by which the Dairy Farms of Northern Illinois were to be RUN, FROM SPRINGFIELD with a BRANCH OFFICE IN CHICA-

GO.

All this, with over half of the Milk produced in Northern Illinois, having no market for its Sale except the Ordinary Country Creamery or Cheese

Factory as they have existed for Thirty Years.

I opposed this law—in sections and in its entirety as it related to the Dairy Sections. I did not believe and do not believe now that the dairy farms of Northern Illinois should be run and controlled by an Army of Political Inspectors, interested principally in drawing their Salaries.

This Law or Bill was Amended. The Number of Inspectors reduced—the Appropriation cut down to a reasonable sum—the right to INSPECT THE PRODUCTION OF MILK and Dairy products, prohibited—The Inspection of the SANITARY CONDITIONS OF Farms cut out of the bill and a clause added expressly providing against the repeal of the Butterine Law and I had the privilege of writing in the bill myself the Standard of quality, purity and strength of milk and cream that may be established by THE STATE FOOD STANDARD COMMISSION in the following provision:

Section 1 Session Laws 1907 Page 544

PROVIDED, THAT SAID FOOD STANDARD COMMISSION IN DETERMINING AND ADOPTING A STANDARD OF QUALITY, PURITY OR STRENGTH, OF MILK OR CREAM, SHALL FIX SUCH STANDARD AS MAY BE DETERMINED, lies within their reach. He can send sample of soils and have them tested and their merits or their deficiencies pointed out. Any farmer may receive the reports made of all the tests and examinations, and possess himself of all the information, tests, discoveries, and knowledge that is obtainable from this, one of the best equipped experimental stations in this country. All you have to do is to write for the reports or send your soils for examination.

It was my privilege in the session of 1903 to introduce and assist in passing the appropriation bill, that made this station one of the leading ones in the country.

I submit the letters written by Mr. Davenport, the Dean of the College of Agriculture in 1903 and others, which came to me voluntarily and which I fully appreciate.

Urbana, Ill., May 9, 1903.

Hon. Edward D. Shurtleff,

Marengo, Ill.

My Dear Sir:

I had no opportunity the evening of adjournment to see you for a last word.

I cannot express to you in words the deep appreciation I feel for the service you rendered the Agricultural College and Experiment Station bill the last moment, nor do I feel that it is possible for you to understand the full significance of what was gained.

First of all it provides a fund that will assure the future of the College as an institution for teaching agriculture second to none in the country.

The first section also insures that we shall be able to provide buildings for the College and Station which will be no reproach to the state. Of course this much was conceded by the Senate at the time of amending your bill.

What you won on conference was not only of great moment to the work here, but what is of exceeding importance, it fixes standards and will simplify matters greatly another session.

What I mean is this: The amounts herein provided for investigation are sufficient for the work—and unless I can anticipate no reason for asking that these amounts be changed. What you gained therefore, not only insures us funds for the present period, but settles principles and precedents which are of more value than can be fully realized at this time. To put it all in a few words what you did at the last moment fixes final standards for both College and Station.

The bill had many friends, and so far as known, no enemies. I am satisfied that what the Senate did was done without full appreciation of its significance, and while back, as you did, nearly everything, was a great triumph for agriculture. The farmers of the state owe you a lasting debt of gratitude.

I shall always take pleasure in making known your real service for this bill in the last critical moment of the session, and especially will I be glad to do so in and about McHenry County.

I enclose copy of a letter to my friends Messrs. Thompson and Hunt. I do not know whether they happen to be your friends or not, but the letter expresses my sentiments as I feel them.

Assuring you of my deep personal regard as well as appreciation for this public service, I am,

Respectfully yours,

E. DAVENPORT.

TAXATION AND REVENUE.

I took some part in the passage of the Apportionment Bills in 1901, the Civil Labor laws in 1903, the passage of the Constitutional Amendment in 1903, which was submitted to the voters of the state in that year and adopted, authorizing and permitting the Legislature of the State to Draft a Special Bill or Bills for a Chicago Charter, which, when submitted to the voters of that city and adopted, should become the Organic Law of the city of Chicago—and several such acts were passed in 1905 and adopted by the voters of Chicago, such as The Municipal Court Act, the Mayor's Term Act, the authority to sell gas and electricity Act, and in 1907, the General Charter Act, largely written and passed upon by Charter Committee, consisting of 72 of the leading and prominent men of Chicago, was passed by the Legislature, originating in the House—and although indorsed and backed by nearly every newspaper in the City of Chicago, it was defeated at the polls in that city in September, 1907.

Since that time there seems an apparent intention of passing certain portions of the Chicago Charter, not as Charter Bills, but as General State Laws and made applicable to the whole state. In 1908, the Legislature passed the "Wheel Tax Bill" authorizing all cities and villages by Ordinance to levy a Wheel tax.

Later in 1908 there were proposed what was termed the Mayors Bond Bills, which was in effect a system of changing the revenue laws, so that the actual value of property should be divided by three to make its assessed valuation instead of dividing by five, thus adding two-thirds to the assessed valuation, the purpose being to make the bonding limit two-thirds higher, and in order that the sum total of taxes should not be increased it was proposed to change the Julul Tax Limitation Law from 5 per cent to 3 per cent, so that the tax Limitation should remain the same, but the cities and villages and municipal bodies might issue an increased amount of bonds—and if this end could have been accomplished, there would have been little chance to criticize; but upon a study of the question it is found that the Julul Tax Limitation Law applies only to the City of Chicago and that, while the law would work out in the city of Chicago as suggested, its effect in all country districts would be to raise the limits of all taxes two-thirds from the present limitations, and I therefore, before the Legislature, was asked to pass upon this question prepared and sent to each member of the Legislature a printed slip as follows:

The bills that are known as the "Bond Bills," wanted by several mayors of Illinois, provide for changing the method of arriving at the assessed valuation of property, as follows:

Taking one-third of the actual value instead of one fifth, which adds two-thirds to the present assessed valuation, and thereby permitting of making the additional levy of taxes on the same amounts as now raised, and two-thirds in addition. This is said to be overcome by changing the Julul law tax limitation and making the limit of all taxes covered by the Julul law three per cent instead of five per cent, and thus authorizing the issue of additional bonds and not increasing the taxation. In other words, $300 actual value divided by 5, gives $60 assessed valuation, and upon a tax rate of 5 per cent would produce $3 taxes, $300 actual value, divided by 3 would produce $100 assessed value; multiplied by 3, the rate would produce $3 taxes—the same. But it would authorize an issue of bonds on the basis of 100 instead of 60. It is quite true that this could be done and not raise the limit of taxation in the City of Chicago. But the Julul law, limiting taxation to five per cent excludes from its operation state taxes, village taxes, levee taxes, school building taxes, district school taxes, high school taxes, road and bridge taxes, and also bonded indebtedness taxes, in cities with bonded indebtedness, exceeds ten per cent, of the assessed valuation of property.

It will be seen from this that the only items of taxes current in all places in Illinois outside of Chicago, covered by the Julul law, consists of city taxes, 2 per cent limit; county taxes, .0075; town tax, 1 or 2 mills to the dollar; and in very rare cases a high school tax and library or park tax; so that, in effect, the Julul law limitation of taxes, whether five per cent or three per cent, does not affect any district except the City of Chicago proper.

The increasing of the assessed valuation would permit the raising of additional taxes two-thirds more than can be raised now; or, in other words, would raise the per cent of tax two-thirds, based on the present assessed valuation. This would work out in an ordinary district outside of Chicago, with the raise, as follows:

| | Present Limit. | Proposed Present As't. |
|-----------------------|----------------|------------------------|
| State | .0050 | .0050 |
| County | .0075 | .0125 |
| Town | .0020 | .0036 |
| Village or city | .0200 | .0333 |
| School building | .0250 | .0110 |
| School district | .0080 | .0410 |
| Road & bridge | .0050 | .0132 |

So that, in all districts outside of Chicago, or to a larger extent, the limit of taxation would be raised from substantially $.0925 to $.1496, or a raise in taxation of substantially $.0571 on the dollar.

The answer to this is that the taxing bodies will not levy these taxes; that it will not increase the taxation at all; that they do not use all these funds anyway, and that it could be left to the taxing bodies outside of Chicago to determine, without any limit, how much they should raise. If this argument is true, then why have a tax limit at all? Taxing bodies are largely the same every where, and the argument that this change of system would not lead to increased taxation in the country is not strictly true. It would authorize an increased tax, as above stated, in all districts outside of Chicago.

And the bills in the House on passage received only six or eight votes in the state coming from districts outside of Chicago—every member from Cook county voting for the bills. There is doubtless an emergency in many cases for the issuing of more bonds and it is not a serious offense for cities in this generation to make valuable and lasting improvements and permit the next generation to assist in paying the bill, but this must be done without removing all limits from taxation in the country and in fact the tax limit on all lines MUST NOT BE RAISED for the people and property, at the present time, are taxed sufficiently high, and this is one of the acute questions that has now gone over to the next legislature and there is no doubt but that, if time is taken, and that matter studied, the revenue laws can be bettered and all interests of the State taken care of.

CHICAGO.

The relation of Chicago to the State and of the State to Chicago is one of the chief questions in state politics at the present time. The growth of the City has been with such leaps and bounds that she bids fair to have fully one-half of the population of the State in two more years, when under the State Constitution it will be the duty of the Legislature to again apportion the State into Senatorial Districts in accordance with population.

No part of the State is prouder of Chicago's growth than we who live in this northern section and wholly tributary to her, and it has been my pride as Legislator, whenever the interests of my own District did not interfere, to assist the City of Chicago in every way within my power, and with no small success. But from this it DOES NOT FOLLOW THAT THE ENTIRE CONTROL OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF ILLINOIS should be within ONE CITY. In fact, it would be the most DANGEROUS principle of GOVERNMENT that could happen to CHICAGO, and to say nothing about the balance of the State.

There are in the House 133 members, and in the Senate 51 members from 51 Districts.

In 1870 there were 5 Senators and 15 Representatives from Cook county, and 46 Senators and 136 Representatives from the country districts of the State.

Under the apportionment of 1880 Cook county had 7 Senators and 21 Representatives, leaving 44 Senators and 130 Representatives from the outside. In other words Cook county had taken from the State two Senators and Six Representatives.

Under the apportionment prior to 1890 Cook county had ten Senators and thirty Representatives from the county. Under the apportionment then prevailed until 1901, Cook county had fifteen Senators and forty-five Representatives, having taken away from Country Districts five Senators and fifteen Representatives.

In 1901 the State was re-apportioned giving Cook county ten Senators and fifty Representatives, leaving the State four Senators and twelve Representatives. Seven more Senators and twenty Representatives taken from the country and given to Cook county, will place the legislature absolutely within the control and domination of Cook county, and it is quite likely that the New Census of 1910 will warrant this transfer.

What does it mean? It means that the Ten Thousand School Districts in the State, outside of Chicago, will have to go up to Chicago and ask—beg for the kind of School Laws they want—from the ONE SCHOOL DISTRICT—Chicago is one School District, controlled by special laws by the City of Chicago. It means that the 1500 cities and villages of the State will have to go up to the One City and with MEAKNESS implore that one CITY for such municipal regulations as the 1500 cities need. It means that the 10,000 Highway Commissioners will have to ask Chicago—how they can mend and care for their roads and bridges—with Chicago having no similar interest. It means, in fact, that one CENTER, oftentimes coming down into the hands of one Man shall be the whole RULING POWER in the State of Illinois. In fact, even now, the DANGER POINT has been passed, and CHICAGO and COOK County, standing together as they frequently do—have only to get seven Senators and twenty Representatives, to have the full control of the State.

A Resolution should be passed at the next Session of the Legislature, submitting to the People of the State A Constitutional Amendment, changing this Rule and limiting Cook county's Hold upon the Legislature and the State. It has been proposed to Limit Cook county to One-Third of the Representation. I hardly believe in this Rule as it is arbitrary, and would be taxation without Representation, and would likely not command a two-thirds vote in each House, required. I have heretofore suggested a Resolution by way of compromise, which gives Cook county full representation in one House, for example, in the Lower House, and limits her representation in the Senate by giving to each county in the State a Senator and providing the Cook county's ratio of Senators remain as it is or even to add a few of the present number in Cook county. This would have the advantage of not interfering with any present Senator's seat. It would make the Senate a larger body and give to the Senate 101 members from the country and practically 25 to 30 from the City. The city of Chicago would likely in time control the Lower House. The Senate would likely be more susceptible to public opinion, being a larger body, and one House would be a check upon the other by reason of its different control.

If elected to the house it shall be my first act to introduce a Resolution to this end and to use every for at my command to put it through. Should such a Resolution fail of passage and political conditions remain as they are in the State of ILLINOIS, two years from next winter Chicago will re-apportion the State AS IT SEES FIT.

Such a Resolution would have been submitted to the last Legislature but for the Deep Waterway Resolution, amending the Constitution, only one such resolution being permissible at a session.

I wish to thank the Republican Voters of the 8th Senatorial District for their warm and loyal support in the past and assure every one of you, that I appreciate your support, and if elected shall try to represent the whole District to the best of my ability.

I attach several letters and newspaper editorials which have been very interesting to me and they may be to the voters of the District.

For the use of the personal pronoun, "I," in this write up, I beg to apologize, but I prefer to put it this way, rather than write it up myself, and then ask some of my friends to stand for it.

My name will be on the Republican Primary Ballot upon August 8th under the heading of "Representative in the Legislature." There will be several other names. The Republican Senatorial Committee will have determined how many Republican Candidates it will be advisable for the Republicans to nominate, in this District—likely two, possibly three, and this will be printed on the ballot. You may vote one vote for as many candidates as the committee recommend. You cannot plump your vote. If the committee recommend the nomination of two candidates, you may cast one vote for me and one vote for some other candidate. You cannot cast two votes (both votes) for either the other candidate or myself.

Very respectfully,
EDWARD D. SHURTLEFF.

Mr. Shurtleff's Many Friends Speak Words of Praise For Him.

I submit a letter from my friend, Hon. E. J. Drew, candidate for the Lieut. Governorship, at the present time backed and indorsed by the Federation of Labor in the State of Illinois. In fact, Mr. Drew started as a coal miner and has worked his own way up.

Joliet, Ill., May 25, 1905.

Hon. Edward D. Shurtleff,

Marengo, Ill.

My Dear Friend:

Your favor of the 24th received, I appreciate your kind letter of thanks for my support to you during the last session. Only once did I feel matters should be different and some legislation should be pushed, but after a talk with you I saw where the trouble lay. I know I am deeply grateful for your friendship and only my regard for you made me keep quiet. At any time I can help you, I am within call. I shall always remember your worth as a man and friend and at no time did I ever doubt your honesty and sin-

WHIPPLE FOR LEGISLATURE

Has Honorable Record as Attorney-at-Law,
Clergyman and Man of Affairs

John A. J. Whipple of 508 North avenue, Waukegan, Illinois, is a candidate for representative on the republican ticket and is making a clean, straight-forward and winning campaign for a victory at the people's convention which, assured by the new primary law, comes August eighth next.

John A. J. Whipple received his education at Northwestern University at Evanston. After finishing the classical course at this leading school he took the law course and was admitted to the Illinois state bar. He begun his practice in Chicago and was in business there for some time.

Later he realized that he would have a wider scope of activity in the ministry. This is characteristic of the man. He has always had a purpose. That purpose has always been to make himself of use to humanity, to his fellow citizens to his own city. He entered the Rock conference and has since held such important charges in the Methodist church of Illinois as Joliet, Princeton, Morrison, Mendota, and Waukegan. Two years ago he again entered legal work at which he is now employed.

Mr. Whipple is a prominent Elk, an enthusiastic Mason, a staunch member of the First Methodist church and a citizen of Waukegan deeply interested in state, county and municipal politics. His fellow townsmen are supporting his candidacy enthusiastically and Lake county generally favors him.

JOLIET NEWS

J. A. J. Whipple, our former parson of Richards street, is a candidate for legislator on the republican ticket from the Waukegan district. Where could one go to find a better law maker. Mr. Whipple was educated for the bar, but selected the pulpit because of its wide field of usefulness, and to be useful continued his studies in worldly things. Thus he is both good and wise. He has the knowledge, the courage and the useful habit. Joliet should give any assistance it can, for he will be a useful man in Springfield, for the state as well as Waukegan, and Joliet is in the state.

WAUKEGAN SUN

Mr. Whipple, besides having been pastor of the First Methodist church of Waukegan, has a sterling legal training, can practice at the Illinois bar, has served in civic matters for years, headed the Joliet committee of 100 which did such good work for that city, and is considered one of the brainiest men in Waukegan. Dr. Whipple is so well known and so universally liked here as a man of affairs, a good man, and a public spirited citizen, that comments are unnecessary.

WHITESIDE SENTINEL

Mr. Whipple was one of the most popular pastors ever stationed in Morrison and his many friends here, regretting that they are unable to vote for him, will be highly gratified to learn of his election to this important office. He is very well qualified for the position and the assembly would be elevated by the election of such candidates as Mr. Whipple. Upon his leaving Morrison in the fall of 1894 Mr. Whipple went to Princeton, and from there to Joliet, where he was pastor of Richards street M. E. church. While a resident of Joliet, Mr. Whipple was at the head of the Municipal League and was very prominent and active in the affairs of the city. He practiced law previous to time he entered the ministry and at present he is engaged in the legal department of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company in Chicago. Mr. Whipple is a "good mixer" familiarly known as "Parson John" and is for men.

RALPH J. DADY
of Whitney & Dady

Republican Candidate for the Nomination for STATE'S ATTORNEY

Primaries, Saturday, August 8, 1908.

To The Republican Voters Of Lake County

I would like to meet every voter of Lake County personally, but as this is practically impossible, I take this way of appealing to you to support me in my candidacy, if you feel you can consistently do so.

The primary election on August 8th will be a direct primary, and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in the entire county will be the nominee of his party.

There are certain offenders who know what the law is, but wilfully violate it; as to such persons, my policy will be, if elected, an uncompromising prosecution to the end, to the best of my skill and ability.

As to many offenses, the State's attorney is vested by law with a discretion to temper the prosecution, or not, as circumstances seem to him to require; as to offenders of this character, I pledge myself to so conduct the affairs of the office that the public welfare shall be my guiding motive, and I will never, under any circumstances, offer a shield to crime.

In a word, I will ever strive to conduct the office to promote obedience to, and respect for the law.

Respectfully,

Ralph J. Dady

Most people would be satisfied with the kind of a living they are making if other people were not living better.

To The Republican Voters Of Lake County

I take this means of declaring my candidacy for the R-publican Nomination for the office of State's Attorney of this Lake County. Realizing the importance of this office to the people in general and appreciating the responsibility there to attached, I ask your support.

Having practiced law in Lake County for more than twelve (12) years, with a good measure of success and my Republicanism never having been in doubt, I feel justified in asking Republican support on August 8th.

If on the above date I am nominated, and in November elected, I shall during my tenure make an honest effort to so conduct the affairs of the State's Attorney's office as to meet the approval of the entire people.

My oath of office as prescribed by the Statutes shall at all times be my platform.

Under the new Primary law, which will be in force July 1st, and will therefore govern in August, the People have the absolute power to select the men to make up the Republican ticket, and when you mark in front of a candidate's name you are doing that which has been done heretofore by a delegate in convention, so in reality on August 8th, 1908, Lake County will hold the largest convention in its history, and I am particularly anxious to receive the endorsement of that convention.

Wm. F. Weiss.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF
The Eighth Senatorial District

I desire to announce that I shall be a candidate for the Lower House of Representatives of the General Assembly, from the Eighth Senatorial District, subject to the Republican Primaries to be held August 8, 1908.

In the 44th General Assembly, 1905, and the 45th General Assembly, 1907—in substantially four sessions—the 8th Senatorial District and McHenry county have had the honor and the influence of filling the Speakership of the Lower House. How fairly or how poorly I have filled that position I can only leave to the judgment of others, upon the record, and to the opinion of those who have served in the House.

That there is a very good opportunity for the 8th Senatorial District and McHenry county to fill the position of Speaker in the Lower House for a third successive term, and that it is the request of many of the present members who are candidates for re-election, are the causes of my candidacy at the present time.

If elected, I shall vote upon the question of the United States Senatorship as instructed by the Republicans of this District, in the primaries of August 8th.

Very respectfully,

EDWARD D. SHURTLEFF.

LAKE COUNTY'S CANDIDATE

To the Republican Voters of the 8th Senatorial District;

I desire to announce that I shall be a candidate for state senator from the 8th Senatorial District, subject to the republican election to be held August 8, 1908.

Owing to my duties on the Board of Review, it will be impossible to personally see all of the Republican voters of the district, therefore I take this way of announcing my candidacy, and solicit your support.

George Quentin.

Rapid Transit.

Banks and Billings, deeply interested in the automobile question, were discussing the relative merits of electricity and gasoline, when Harding strolled into the club.

"Say, Harding," said Billings, earnestly, "if you were to buy an automobile, to what kind of power would you give the preference, gasoline or electricity?"

"Both too slow," replied Harding. "I'd have mine go by sound, because sound is odorless and travels 743 miles an hour."—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

A False Theory.

"The proverb may be right," mused Noah, as he cast one last, lingering look before he went in the ark and shut the door, "but this does not seem to fit the category of events in the tide of men's lives, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune."

To the Voters of the Eighth
Senatorial District

I hereby announce myself as candidate for the office of State Senator from the Eighth Senatorial District, subject to the action of the Republican primaries to be held August 8th, 1908; my two terms service in the lower house I feel ought to somewhat qualify me for the position.

If elected I do hereby agree to vote for the candidate for United States Senator that shall receive the endorsement of the voters at the primaries. Frank R. Covey, Belvidere, Ill.

BOARD OF REVIEW

The Lake County Board of Review is now in session in the Court House of Waukegan, Illinois.

Any person or corporation that desires to complain to said Board of Review because his or its property has been assessed too high shall file with the clerk of said Board of Review his or its complaint in writing on or before the first Monday in August. Complaint blanks will be sent to any address upon application for the same.

The "Waukegan Day" celebration committee visited Antioch Monday in eleven "flagged, tagged and bannered" automobiles, containing forty-two enthusiastic Waukegan Day boosters. They made an imposing appearance and distributed show cards, posters and buttons promiscuously about town. They had started on a tour throughout Lake County and we would judge by their wide awake interest that Waukegan will have one of the largest celebrations in its history on Monday August 3. One of the chief attractions will be a water battle between the firemen of Waukegan and Kenosha, for a prize of $25.00 which will take place in the vacant field east of the car barn on Washington street in the morning. Probably five men will be on a team and the fire pressure will be on the city mains. The plan is to have the firemen stand a block apart, turn on the water and then advance in the fight. The losing side will be the one which has its men knocked down first or is forced to drop the hose and flee.

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it has been tested in so many ways, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent bottle is sold by all good druggists.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

This is one what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol For Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefitted. Hon. E. D. Shurtleff, Marengo, Ill.

Dear Shurtleff:

I hope you have found an opportunity to rest. I am receiving some complaints regarding my votes but no complaint about the work of the last General Assembly.

Yours truly,
C. S. DENEEN.

United States Senate, Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mr. Speaker:

I want to congratulate you on getting along with the Legislature in such good shape. I think you have made an excellent speaker of the House, sustained yourself admirably, and strengthened yourself greatly in the admiration of the people of the state.

Wishing you good health, I am,
Sincerely yours,
S. M. CULLOM.

Honorable Edward D. Shurtleff,

Marengo, Ill.

Friend Shurtleff,

I am in receipt of your very kind letter of the 20th inst. I desire to avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my sincere appreciation of the absolute fairness with which you not only presided over the deliberations of the House of Representatives as a body, but also as to the uniform fairness with which you accorded the members of the minority. I may cite as an instance the promptitude with which you accorded to the minority their constitutional rights in the matter of Senate Bill 551, regarding the Board of Local Improvements of Chicago. I have always contended ly and impartially in every instance. In closing I wish you a bright and prosperous future. I remain, Yours truly,

THOMAS CAMPBELL.

Danville, Ill., May 28, 1907.

My Dear Mr. Speaker:
Replying thereto I beg to say that I feel that my position was such that I was of very little good to the organization or yourself. But in the near future I hope time may shape matters so that I may be able to return the many favors you have shown me during the session. I will not be a candidate for re-election but will continue to take part in political battles in this county for those who are my friends.

I thank you very kindly again and again for past favors and beg to remain,
Very truly,
WALTER V. DYSERT.
Hon. Edward D. Shurtleff, House of Representatives, Springfield, Ill.

Marshall, Ill., May 29, 1907.

Hon. E. D. Shurtleff,

Springfield, Ill.

My Dear Sir:

Permit me to say that it is my judgment that the thanks are justly due you for the kind and courteous treatment each and every member of the assembly received at your hands as speaker, for I think it may be truthfully said that no member thereof has any just ground for complaint of the treatment by the speaker, he having never "lost his head" on any occasion during the session, always fair and impartial to the new as well as to the older members, and at all times guarding the best welfare of the whole people of the state of Illinois.

I wish to personally thank you for the splendid courtesy shown me during the entire session and for the aid you gave me in securing the passage of my bills, for, unimportant as they were, it would have been utterly impossible for me to have secured the passage of a single measure without the valuable assistance you gave me and I assure you I appreciate the favors thus shown me more than I can express to you, and I entertain hopes that it will be my privilege, at no far distant time, to more emphatically

Urbana, Ill., May 20, 1903.

Hon. E. D. Shurtleff,

Marengo, Ill.

My Dear Sir:

Since writing you yesterday your favor of May 18, with copy of telegram to the Governor has come to hand. I certainly appreciate the immediate and effective service you rendered in this matter. The attitude of the Governor was from the first fortunate and we had no difficulty in proceeding at once to get the mistakes corrected. I think that the matter is entirely closed, and I am glad that the outcome has been so satisfactory.

Very truly yours,

Hon. E. D. Shurtleff,

Marengo, McHenry Co., Ill.

Dear Sir:

I desire to express my hearty appreciation of the effective work which you have done as representative from this district, in behalf of the Agricultural and Live-stock interests of the state. Please accept my congratulations on the victory which you gained over the senate committee on the evening of the last session in securing the restoration of all but $20,000 of the appropriation called for in the College and Station bill, which had been cut so severely by the senate committee. Whatever may have been your attitude toward right or wrong in the past, your name is certainly indelibly recorded on the side of right in these matters and I am not the man to withhold my strongest commendation of your efforts in behalf of the interests which I am trying to represent.

Yours very truly,
GEO. A. HUNT.

SHURTLEFF A CANDIDATE.

Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff, of Marengo, has an announcement in this issue, in which he asks for the sup-question of the United States senatorship as instructed by the Republicans of this district, in the primaries of August 8.

Very respectfully,
EDWARD D. SHURTLEFF.

Speaker Shurtleff's announcement practically assures him of election. Although there are four other candidates for the two offices of representative to be filled by the Republicans, Mr. Shurtleff's popularity throughout the district will insure him a very large vote as first choice in all of the counties, notably in McHenry.

The other candidates are from Boone and Lake counties, two from each. As each elector will vote for two candidates Mr. Shurtleff will no doubt receive many votes as the second choice of the friends of other candidates.

Mr. Shurtleff was in Woodstock on Monday attending to matters in the county and circuit courts. To The Sentinel and other friends he stated that his candidacy has no significance beyond a desire again to represent this district and if possible secure reelection as speaker of the house.

In the matter of the United States senatorship Mr. Shurtleff states positively that he is not a candidate for that office, but his voice will be entirely in accord with the wishes of the voters of his district as expressed at the coming primaries.

Mr. Shurtleff's candidacy comes as something of a surprise to the politicians of McHenry county and the district, he having heretofore disclaimed any desire to go back to the legislature, either to the lower house or as senator. All recognize, however, that his candidacy is a formidable one and will be accompanied with success.

Much speculation may have on the senatorship, which office is presumed to belong to McHenry county this time.

Under the new primary law the old rules and precedents which have heretofore governed between the politicians in matters of this kind have lost their weight and it is more than likely that the voter will give but small attention to the question as to whether one or none of the candidates for the legislature come from this or the county. In the same manyond the fondest hopes of his friends and is today looked upon as one of the ablest men in Illinois. Locality prevents him for the present at least, from stepping upward.—The Rockford Morning Star, Sunday, June 23, 1907.

To Speaker Shurtleff is also due a large measure of praise for the good legislation that eventually went through both Houses. An effort had been made to use him as a buffet to ram the Governor but he would have none of it. His reply was: "I have no quarrel with the Governor; we are friends and all measures that he has recommended of a wholesome character must be passed."

To the speaker is surely due the fact that the civil service was properly provided for.

It may be that Mr. Shurtleff will be a candidate for Governor. If he does it is an honorable and natural ambition and he will be a strong candidate and is fitted to make a successful chief magistrate. He certainly was the most successful presiding officer the lower house has had in many years. He ran things with a high hand, but ably and discreetly and when he laid down the gavel had the good will of every member, the minority as well as the majority. There is no sort of question of Shurtleff's honesty. He has proved this beyond peradventure. The fact that the "lobby" has not been so all-powerful in the past and that a few jobs slipped through is due largely to the care and watchfulness of the speaker. Before he became presiding officer, he was known as one of the quietest members on the floor, but he grew by leaps and bounds until by common consent he became recognized as one of the ablest men in the legislature.—Rockford Star, May 11th, 1907.

SHURTLEFF A CANDIDATE.

Speaker Shurtleff, of the House of Representatives, announces his candidacy for renomination in this issue of the Sun.

It will be a signal honor if this district again gets the speakership of Illinois' most important legislative body, and that is what Mr. Shurtleff's election will mean.

The Illinois House has never had a house this week, of which body it is just about certain he will be the presiding officer if he goes back.

Lake county has the votes to nominate Robertson and Stearns "hands down." Shurtleff would run well in all three counties and is pretty sure of the nomination if he is a candidate.

It looks as though Shurtleff, Robertson and Stearns could win handily, as at the primaries every voter would be entitled to cast one vote for each. Lake county is entitled to the senatorship, and has votes to get it.

Why not take it?

—Lake County Independent.

SHURTLEFF ENTERS THE RACE.

Ex-Speaker Seeks Another Term in the General Assembly.

In this issue will be found the announcement of Edward D. Shurtleff of Marengo as a candidate for a seat in the legislature from this legislative district.

Mr. Shurtleff has served in the legislature for the past eight years and it can be truthfully said that this district has never been more ably represented than it has during that time. For four years Mr. Shurtleff has been Speaker of the house and the record made by him in this capacity has justly earned for him the reputation of being one of the ablest and most fearless presiding officers that ever wielded the gavel in the lower house.

It can be said of Mr. Shurtleff that he is an honest servant of the people, always upholding those policies, which in his opinion, will benefit the largest number.

He is a strong minded man and during his administration as Speaker discharged the duties of his office in a fearless manner, regardless of the dictates of newspapers or political bosses. Mr. Shurtleff is always frank and straightforward in dealing with all questions and these characteristics have won for him the respect and admiration of a large following throughout the state, both inside and outside the party.

In Mr. Shurtleff McHenry county has as a candidate for the legislature a man of honor and integrity, a legislator of marked ability and one who is in every way deserving of the support of the whole people. Let us do honor to ourselves and to Mr. Shur-

Hon. Edward D. Shurtleff,

Marengo, Ill.

Dear Sir and Friend,

I can truly say that I consider it a great honor to be one of the 153 members of the House over which you were its honored and beloved presiding officer. In my short experience in legislative work I can truthfully say I know of no presiding officer who was as universally liked and respected by its membership as you. Personally I hope that it will be your privilege to grace the Governor's chair of this state before many years and I assure you that if it is your ambition to reach that exalted position you will have none whose hopes and best wishes for your success shall be stronger than mine. I trust that I may have the opportunity to see you often during the summer months and especially when the Legislature reconvenes in October next.

Thanking you again for your kind remembrance, I am most sincerely,
Your friend,

Hon. Edward D. Shurtleff,

Marengo, Ill.

Dear Sir:

At this time I desire to extend to you my warmest thanks for your many kindnesses shown me, as a new member of the Forty-fifth General Assembly. The present year, I consider a very small token as compared with the esteem that you are held by both Republican and Democratic members of the House.

I have the assurance that I am voicing the sentiment of all members whom you have presided over so fairly express to you by word and act my just appreciation of your kindness to me.

I am and remain,
Very truly yours,
WM. T. HOLLENBECK.

Grand Ridge, May 24, 1907.

E. D. Shurtleff, Mr. Speaker.

Dear Sir: Yours of May 20th just received. No thanks are due. Every member of the Forty-fifth General Assembly recognized the great ability the speaker showed in handling the gavel during the long session. It was the speaker's fairness to all and firmness at all times that endeared the members to their chairman.

Yours very truly,
W. R. LEWIS.

Urbana, Ill., May 9, 1903.

H. T. Thompson and G. A. Hunt,

Marengo, Ill.

Dear Sirs:

I want you to know the great service rendered the Agricultural College and Experiment Station bill by Mr. Shurtleff, representative from your district. The facts are briefly these:

The Senate Appropriation Committee cut out nearly one-half the bill and passed it in that form. The House passed the bill entire. When this bill went over to the Senate it was amended, though not seriously as their own bill had been. There was yet $90,000 difference between the House and Senate and the House refused to concur. When the conference committee met the Senate half was made up from the Appropriations committee of that body and included the very men who had twice cut the bill severely. Mr. Shurtleff headed the House half of the committee, and in about fifteen minutes the Senate had agreed to retire from everything excepting the two small sections relating to sugar beets and poultry. That is to say, Mr. Shurtleff and Stevenson got $70,000 out of the $90,000 between the two bodies.

I take great pleasure in expressing my appreciation of the work of Mr. Shurtleff—it was the last evening of the session and he stood firmly for that which he believed to be right and just, and gained his point.

Very truly yours,
E. DAVENPORT.

port of the Republican voters of the district for the nomination for representative in the general assembly. Mr. Shurtleff has served for two terms as speaker of the Illinois house and he again has a chance to secure that honor if he is elected from this district. He has been an impartial presiding officer and McHenry county has been honored by having him as its representative. There is little doubt but, what he will be nominated and elected, as he is exceedingly popular throughout the district.—Hebron Tribune.

SHURTLEFF IN RACE FOR LOWER HOUSE.

Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff has announced his candidacy for re-election to the lower house of the state legislature at Springfield. The speaker's decision to request re-election to the office, which he has ably filled for eight years past, was arrived at during the past week, after consulting with many friends in this district.

His formal announcement is contained in the following statement addressed to the voters of the district, which will probably appear in all of the papers this week.

To the Republicans of the Eighth Senatorial District:

I desire to announce that I shall be a candidate for the lower house of representatives of the general assembly from the Eighth Senatorial District, subject to the Republican primaries to be held August 8, 1908.

In the forty-fourth general assembly, 1905, and the forty-fifth general assembly, 1907, in substantially four sessions, the Eighth Senatorial District and McHenry county have had the honor and the influence of filling the speakership of the lower house. How fairly or how poorly I have filled that position I can only leave to the judgment of others, upon the record, and to the opinion of those who have served in the house.

That there is a very good opportunity for the Eighth Senatorial District and McHenry county to fill the position of speaker in the lower house for a third successive term, and that is the request of many of the present members who are candidates for re-election, are the causes of my candidacy at the present time.

If elected, I shall vote upon the ner it is quite possible that the senator and one of the representatives may be McHenry county men and that one of the other counties may for this term lose its representation.—Woodstock Sentinel.

Geo. E. Cole, president of the Legislative Voters League in Chicago and a leader in all reform movements in that city, has come out aggressively against the adoption of the charter for that city, where a vote will be taken on the 17th of next month, Mr. Cole also declares in favor of restricting Chicago's representation in the legislature and asks for a new deal in state government. He advocates a constitutional convention to frame a new constitution to grant home rule to every important city in the state and to delegate to the legislature the power to frame only general laws not affecting local government. The position Mr. Cole has taken with reference to limiting the representation of Chicago in the legislature coincides with that taken by Speaker Shurtleff and the latter's friends see in the same a growing sentiment favorable to the speaker as a gubernatorial candidate, because if Geo. E. Cole, the unquestioned leader of the Chicago reformers, cannot support Governor Deneen for renomination something remarkable will surely happen. The fact is it seems beyond belief that Mr. Cole came out in the interview he did last Sunday, which is construed as antagonistic to Mr. Deneen and his aspiration for renomination.—Harvard Herald, August 23, 1907.

This talk of locally-acts to the injury of one of the brightest and most popular men in the state. In fact, it puts Speaker Shurtleff out of the running. If Deneen is to oppose the Marengo man is the one person who might make him put on his thinking cap and do some lat cogitation. Buse undoubtedly prefers him to any of the possible candidates but locally also holds him back. The fact is Shurtleff has the misfortune of living in Hopkins congressional district and this makes his candidacy an impossibility. But for this he could be a powerful candidate for the senate. He is the only person who has held the position of speaker and left the post with reputation materially added to his. He was not only clean, but grew be-more fearless presiding officer, than Mr. Shurtleff. He has, by his attitude on more than one occasion commanded the respect of even his adversaries, by his open opposition to measures popularized by the press and yet in his mind radically wrong.

A man of strong convictions and the courage to advocate them, he makes an ideal presiding officer. There are those who sincerely doubt the wisdom of his course relative to primary law legislation, among them the Sun, but it must be admitted the faults he pointed out prove to be glaring ones, and that amendments to that law will have to come right along the lines he advocated.

Speaker Shurtleff's honesty of purpose has never been questioned. He is today the most esteemed and popular man in the legislature and the demand for his re-election is state wide, with a view to his again presiding over the House.

While Lake county is entitled to at least the senatorship, one republican representative, and the minority representative, it is not reasonable to hope for more, and Mr. Shurtleff will receive a large vote in this part of his district. His nomination is practically assured.—Waukegan Daily Sun.

LAKE COUNTY AND THE SENATORSHIP.

The precedent of years whereby Lake, McHenry and Boone counties alternated each term the senatorship for this district and by common consent arranged that each county should have one of the three members of the legislature is conceded to be "all-out." The three candidates for the legislature and one for the senate getting the largest number of votes on August 8 will be the nominees, regardless of the county in which they may live.

Lake county, by reason of its larger population, is entitled to most representation and there is no reason why the next senator from this district and one republican member of the legislature as well as the minority representative should not be Lake county men.

A. K. Stearns is a candidate for the lower house. Supervisor Robertson, of Highland Park, may be a candidate for the senate, while E. D. Shurtleff, of McHenry, is pretty apt to announce his candidacy for re-election to the leff by giving him a big vote at the primaries August 8.—Richmond Gazette, June 11th.

The candidacy of Mr. Shurtleff means a free-for-all contest in the district for the nomination of Representative and Senator. Heretofore there has been an unwritten law that the three places would be divided among the three counties. Under the new primary law there can be no agreement on the question as the matter is entirely in the hands of the voters and there is nothing to prevent each county having as many candidates as it has aspiring citizens. Under the old deal McHenry county is entitled to the Senatorship this year and it already has two candidates, Messrs. Olson and Mench. Lake county has also a Senatorial candidate in Mayor W. S. Bullock, of Waukegan. Lake also has a candidate for the House, A. K. Stearns, and may have one or two additional candidates. Boone county has one candidate now in the field for the House, D. C. Cowan, and there is no telling how many others will run.

The new primary law will work to the disadvantage of small counties like Boone and it is possible when the primaries are over Boone will be shut out entirely and McHenry and Lake will have the whole bag of tricks. On Republican votes Lake county holds the vantage point with McHenry a close second. In 1904 the votes on President was as follows:

Boone 3,036
McHenry 5,409
Lake 6,635

With these figures as a guide it will not be difficult to figure how easy it will be for Lake and McHenry to gobble everything and leave Little Boone out in the cold.

It is also easy to figure out how Lake county can capture both the Senatorship and one Representative nomination.

With a man of such recognized strength in the field as Speaker Shurtleff the situation is at once complicated and the political guessers have numerous guesses coming. Mr. Shurtleff has a very large personal following in both McHenry and Lake and has many friends in Boone county. He is one of the strong political leaders of Illinois and can be relied upon to conduct a campaign to get the votes.—Belvidere Republican.

READY TO RECEIVE.

MILLION FOR AERONAUTICS

GEN. ALLEN TO ASK CONGRESS FOR BIG APPROPRIATION.

Wants to Purchase Two Military Balloons—Hydrogen Gas Plant Building at Fort Omaha.

Washington. — Encouraged by the general interest manifested in the coming Fort Myer balloon tests and prompted by the advancement of other nations in aeronautics, Brig. Gen. James Allen, chief signal officer, and the board of ordnance and fortifications of the war department will recommend the appropriation by congress next winter of $1,000,000 for aeronautics.

With this money Gen. Allen proposes to erect two balloon stations on the Atlantic coast at New York and at Fort Monroe, Va., and to purchase two balloons of the type of the Republic, the immense dirigible built by the French government to replace the La Patrie, which was lost at Verdun, France, last winter. A balloon of this size would cost $100,000.

A large steel balloon house is nearing completion at Fort Omaha, Neb., under the direction of Capt. C. DeF. Chandler of the signal corps. A gas generating plant is being built in connection with the balloon house and the electricity for supplying power for the plant will be purchased from the electric lighting plant at Omaha. This will be the first modern hydrogen gas plant to be built for the army, the present plant at Fort Myer, Va., being temporary and inadequate. When the plant at Omaha is completed, officers studying at the service schools at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., will be instructed in practical aeronautics.

WOMAN FASTS FIFTY-SIX DAYS.

Remarkable Efforts of Mrs. John F. Dietz of Wisconsin.

Winter, Wis.—Mrs. John Dietz, wife of the famous defender of Cameron dam, has just finished a fast of 56 days. Not only does she know no ill effects of this world's record-breaking effort, but she probably owes her life to it. She underwent the trying ordeal to cure appendicitis and according to her husband she has succeeded.

"Mrs. Dietz has just concluded a 56-days' fast and now is free of all pain," declared Mr. Dietz. "She lost 50 or 60 pounds in weight but she will soon regain that."

She was unable to get a doctor because of the legal war that has been waged against Dietz for five years. Dietz has not been arrested during all that time, although all the court machinery of the state was invoked.

Walker Brought Back from Mexico. San Diego, Cal.—When the steamer St. Denis arrived from Ensenada Sunday morning she had on board William F. Walker, the New Britain (Conn.) absconder, who was in custody of State Superintendent of Police Egan of Connecticut and H. J. Hoffman, a Pinkerton detective. Walker was rather a pitiable object as he stepped ashore, stoop-shouldered and haggard. The newspaper men who sought to interview him could get little more than a shake of the head and the remark: "It is a very fine day."

Plan to Help Illinois Blind. Springfield, Ill.—The state board of public charities, at a meeting Thursday, authorized the appointment of a commission by President Billings of the board to ascertain the number of blind in the state and to formulate plans for the employment of the adult blind and for improving the efficiency of the state care in other particulars.

Maine Forest Fires Quenched.

Portland, Me.—A succession of drenching showers, very timely in their arrival, have served to put a stop to the great fires which have wrought damage amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars in the Maine woods during the last two weeks, causing also more than a little alarm in many instances for the safety of villages and summer resorts. No such drought as that which has prevailed in Maine recently has been known before in a quarter of a century. In some sections no rain fell for two months.

HAWAII GENEROUS TO FLEET.

Great Store of Fruit and Delicacies Distributed Among Vessels.

Honolulu. — Sunday was a quiet day with the officers and men of the Atlantic battleship fleet. Outside of the various games which took place at the league grounds and which hundreds of sailors attended, there was little in the way of formal entertainment except excursions to Pearl Harbor, many of the men taking advantage of the opportunity to inspect the site of the naval station that is being planned. The officers were privately entertained at many residences.

A feature of the entertainment of the fleet Sunday was the presentation of hundreds of tons of fruit and delicacies of all kinds to the various battleships. The great store of good things was loaded on a lighter which was towed to each of the 12 ships in turn, the Hawaiian band being aboard also, and playing native and American airs as the distribution proceeded. A generous supply of food fruits and plenty of reading matter was sent to the island where 850 men of the Nebraska are in quarantine.

The behavior of the men of the fleet ever since they came has been excellent and has aroused many congratulatory remarks.

ALABAMA TROOPS CALLED OUT.

Strike Situation Is Serious—Fatal Conflict at Adamsville.

Birmingham, Ala.—While the reports concerning the strike situation are greatly exaggerated, there was sufficient cause for alarm to induce Gov. Comer to order the militia of the district to sleep on their arms and remain in readiness for an emergency call.

Friday Gov. Comer, together with Sheriff Higdon and a number of deputies, made an automobile tour of the strike district. So impressed was the governor with the seriousness of the strike situation that on his return to Birmingham three local companies of militia were ordered under arms. A mixed company numbering 100 men went to Adamsville, where Friday afternoon an engagement between strike sympathizers and deputies took place, in which one deputy was killed.

Montgomery, Ala.—Troop D of the First squadron, Alabama, cavalry, which has been in camp here participating in the practice shoot, received orders Friday afternoon to report in Birmingham to Sheriff Higdon. The troops left Montgomery on an early train Saturday.

HISTORIC BUILDING BURNS.

Structure in Which First Volunteer for Civil War Enlisted.

St. Paul, Minn.—By the burning of a one-story frame building at Market and Third streets, the structure in which the first volunteer for the union armies enlisted in 1861 was destroyed. The building was erected in 1857.

When President Lincoln issued his call for volunteers Gov. Alexander Ramsey of Minnesota, who was then in Washington, was accorded the privilege of offering the first regiment. Immediately a recruiting office was opened in the building that was burned, and within a few minutes Charles Eichler enlisted.

Wife Sees Husband Drown.

Wells, N. H.—Walter D. Martin, president of the common council of Malden, Mass., who has been spending the summer with his wife and two children on Pine Island in Lake Winnepesaukee, was drowned in the lake Sunday while rowing in front of his cottage and within sight of his wife.

Capt. McCrea Passes Away.

New York.—Capt. Henry McCrea, U. S. N., who was in command of the battleship Georgia during the cruise of the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific coast, died Sunday of Bright's disease in the Naval hospital, Brooklyn.

Well-Known River Captain Dead.

Gallipolis, O.—Capt. Martin E. Brown, one of the best-known steamboat men on the Ohio river, died suddenly of heart failure. Capt. Brown operated packet boats between Pittsburg and St. Louis.

ACCUSED BY MOTHER

NEW YORKER ARRESTED FOR ATTEMPTED EXTORTION.

SCION OF AN OLD FAMILY

Prisoner Admits Writing Letter Which Demands Money and Hints at Murder of His Parent.

New York.—John A. Van Rensselaer, son of Mrs. John King Van Rensselaer, and a member of one of New York's oldest families, was taken into custody Monday night on a charge of attempted extortion.

The arrest was made on advice from Chief of Police Crowley of New York, R. I., who received a complaint from Mrs. Van Rensselaer that her son had written a letter threatening her bodily harm unless she provided him with funds. Van Rensselaer is 34 years old and married.

The prisoner admitted to the police he had written the letter, which reads: "I have just seen Lawrence Lee, and I am given to understand that you will pay $30 per month for my board if I will go 300 miles from New York, and that I must have your written consent to leave the place that you may select."

"Did it ever occur to you that I have an absolute remainder interest in Aunt Frances' estate's securities, and that by blowing your head off, that my wife would have an income sufficient to support her?"

"I will take that course if necessary, and upon my head will rest the consequences. (Thaw is still alive, maybe I will be.)"

"In any case, my wife, God bless her, will benefit by your demise, even if I don't."

"I have seen many disagreements and much suffering in my life, and I must say that most of it is due to you. A selfish peacock, whose name in these times amounts to nothing, and who is almost if not entirely forgotten, in circles once tread."

"I am in no humor to be trifled with, and I wish to go on record that I will take action on sight, unless something is done at once. You gave Harold $6,000 and a trip to Europe. What have I had for being honest?"

"I want you to raise on that fancy name of yours $5,000 for me. If you are such a great lady, make good; if not, keep out of my sight. I can raise cash enough yet to go to you wherever you are, and I have a good name."

DROWNS SELF AND CHILDREN.

Tragic Deed of Despondent Woman at New York.

New York.—Despondent because of ill-health and fearful of the fate which might await her two little children if they were left alone to face the world, Mrs. Gussie Benson sought peace for all beneath the waters of the East river. The bodies of the mother and her little ones lie side by side in the morgue awaiting burial.

For several years Mrs. Benson had lived with her husband and children on a South Dakota farm, but when her health failed she decided to return to her old home in this city. With her came the children, a boy of four and a girl two years old. When the change of scene failed to have the hoped for effect upon her health Mrs. Benson became despondent. Wednesday she started for a walk with her little ones and did not return. Monday the bodies were picked up in the river.

TWELVE BOYS ARE RESCUED.

Leap into Saginaw Bay from Burning Gasoline Launch.

Saginaw, Mich.—News of a thrilling rescue of 12 boys Sunday afternoon from a burning launch on Saginaw bay reached here Monday from Bay Port. Harvey Light, Russell Meyers and George Wall of Saginaw, with nine young boys, started from Bay Port across Saginaw bay to Point Lookout. When a mile or so out in the lake the gasoline tank exploded and the whole boat was instantly in flames.

The 12 young men grabbed life preservers and leaped into the bay. Two fishing smacks and a gasoline launch put out and rescued the boys, several of whom were exhausted.

Big Fire in Canadian Town.

Fort Williams, Ont.—Fire Monday afternoon completely destroyed the new business block of the John King company, the warehouses of the company, the Salvation Army headquarters and the stores of Kirkup & Wilkie, and R. Strachan. The loss is $200,000.

Millionaire Dies of Apoplexy.

Kankakee, Ill.—Stricken with apoplexy at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Madeline E. Huling, George D. Huling of Kansas City, Mo., a millionaire, died suddenly Sunday night. Mr. Huling was born in Kankakee on April 22, 1857. He was unmarried.

Shah of Persia Alarmed.

Teheran.—The successes of the revolutionaries at Tabriz, concerning which news is beginning to reach here, have encouraged the local revolutionary leaders and caused apprehensions of renewed disturbances. Rapid preparations are being made to concentrate the shah's forces, and 1,000 horsemen of the nomadic tribe at Bakhtiar have arrived on the outskirts of the city. Quarters are being prepared for them in the vicinity of the shah's palace, which is becoming rapidly transformed into a fortress.

BED-BOUND FOR MONTHS.

Hope Abandoned After Physicians' Consultation.

Mrs. Enos Shearer, Yew and Washington Sts., Centralia, Wash., says: "For years I was weak and run down, could not sleep, my limbs swelled and the secretions were troublesome; pains were intense. I was fast in bed for four months. Three doctors said there was no cure for me, and I was given up to die. Being urged, I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Soon I was better, and in a few weeks was about the house, well and strong again."

The Candy Girl.

He was one of those sentimental chaps who imagine the only way to capture a girl's heart is to send her volumes of poetry. Selecting a book of reasonable verse he sent it to his lady fair with the following scribbled on the fly-leaf:

"Dearest, as I seek your heart, A book of verse I do impart!"

And the pretty but sensible girl, who did not care a rap if Shakespeare had been a pirate instead of a poet, returned the verses with the following lines:

"To the woods with this sludge, If my heart you'd really budge, Send me up a pound of fudge."

Where the Urchin Scored.

The busy man stopped before an office building and leaped from his carriage. At the same moment an ambitious urchin ran forward and piped: "Hey, mister, kin I hold yer horse?" "No, you can't!" snapped the busy man. "Won't charge y' much," insisted the urchin. "I don't care about the charge," impatiently responded the man, throwing a blanket over his bony steed. "My horse will not run away." "Gee, mister, I didn't think he'd run away!" "No?" "No, I thought he might fall down."

Swadeshi.

In the sense in which Sir William Harcourt remarked "We are all socialists now," it may be said that all Anglo-Indians are bellers in Swadeshi. While all reasonable Anglo-Indians deplore the senseless agitation and the unsound economics of the extremist advocates of Swadeshi principles, they are all anxious to assist that natural development of indigenous industries and the creation of new ones upon which the future prosperity of the country so largely depends.—Pioneer Mail.

DROPPED COFFEE

Doctor Gains 20 Pounds on Postum.

A physician of Wash., D. C., says of his coffee experience: "For years I suffered with periodical headaches which grew more frequent until they became almost constant. So severe were they that sometimes I was almost frantic. I was sallow, constipated, irritable, sleepless; my memory was poor, I trembled and my thoughts were often confused."

"My wife, in her wisdom, believed coffee was responsible for these ills and urged me to drop it. I tried many times to do so, but was its slave."

"Finally Wife bought a package of Postum, and persuaded me to try it, but she made it same as ordinary coffee and I was disgusted with the taste. (I make this emphatic because I fear many others have had the same experience.) She was distressed at her failure and we carefully read the directions, made it right, boiled it full 15 minutes after boiling commenced, and with good cream and sugar, I liked it—it invigorated and seemed to nourish me."

"This was about a year ago. Now I have no headaches, am not sallow, sleeplessness and irritability are gone, my brain clear and my head steady. I have gained 20 lbs. and feel I am a new man."

"I do not hesitate to give Postum due credit. Of course dropping coffee was the main thing, but I had dropped it before, using chocolate, cocoa and other things to no purpose."

"Postum not only seemed to act as an invigorant, but as an article of nourishment, giving me the needed phosphates and albumens. This is no imaginary tale. It can be substantiated by my wife and her sister, who both changed to Postum and are hearty women of about 70."

"I write this for the information and encouragement of others, and with a feeling of gratitude to the inventor of Postum."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

WAS ONLY RED BLOOD.

And Three-Year-Old Had Been Told That It Was Blue.

Three-year-old Allan had a very aristocratic grandma, who prided herself on her own and her husband's blue-blooded ancestry. She told him heroic deeds of them and warned him from ever playing with boys of low degree.

One day Allan came screaming upstairs to his mamma and grandma, holding his hand up covered with blood, where he had cut his little finger. They were both greatly alarmed, as he was a child who rarely cried or complained when hurt. Mamma washed the blood off and, examining the cut, said:

"Why, dear, it's not so very bad. Does it hurt you so much?"

"I'm not cryin' 'cause it hurts," he said, "but 'cause it's only red blood, and grandma said I had blue."—Philadelphia Ledger.

ITCHING HUMOR ON BOY

His Hands Were a Solid Mass, and Disease Spread All Over Body—Cured in 4 Days By Cuticura.

"One day we noticed that our little boy was all broken out with itching sores. We first noticed it on his little hands. His hands were not as bad then, and we didn't think anything serious would result. But the next day we heard of the Cuticura Remedies being so good for itching sores. By this time the disease had spread all over his body, and his hands were nothing but a solid mass of this itching disease. I purchased a box of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, and that night I took the Cuticura Soap and lukewarm water and washed him well. Then I dried him and took the Cuticura Ointment and anointed him with it. I did this every evening and in four nights he was entirely cured. Mrs. Frank Donahue, 208 Fremont St., Kokomo, Ind., Sept. 16, 1907."

Had Been Attended To.

An Italian went up to the civil service commissioners' rooms in the federal building the other day to be examined for a laborer's position. He answered most of the questions correctly. Finally they asked him if he had ever been naturalized. He seemed a bit puzzled, but at last his face lighted up.

"Ah, I know whata you mean. Scratcha de arm. Yes, kasta week."—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Difficult Lesson.

"It is next to impossible for a man to teach a pretty girl how to whistle," said a musician who is a good whistler.

"How is that?" he was asked.

"Well, providing she is not your wife or sister, when a pretty girl gets her lips properly puckered she usually looks so bewitchingly tempting that he kisses her, and the consequence is she doesn't have a chance to blow a note."

Saturday morning about one o'clock fire broke out at the Bowman Dairy Co's factory in the boiler room and in a very short time the whole structure was a mass of flames the village people were aroused from sleep by the ringing of the fire and church bells and readily responded but too late to save the building, they at once set about to save all they could the fire company kept the adjoining buildings wet and to them credit must be given of saving Mr. Pafahl's house and the Pikeville Creamery Company's cool shed which were in a direct path of the flames. All the butter about thirty five cans of milk some machinery were saved. This loss falls most heavily on the Bowman people as no insurance was carried. Farmers had to seek other markets for their milk mostly going to the adjoining creameries while others who had cans are shipping to Chicago. The Bowman Dairy Company have not fully decided to rebuild although it is the opinion of most of the patrons that they will.
